(4) The registration of a charge under this section may be effected by any other persons who may recover any fees properly paid for the registration from the co-operative society.

(5) Where a charge of a co-operative society is not registered with the Director in accordance with this section due to negligence or carelessness on the part of the committee members, such members shall be deemed to have acted contrary to the Act and the Director may surcharge each member a sum not exceeding ten thousand shillings for every month of default payable to the Fund.

(6) The Director shall maintain a register of all charges registered under this section.

76. (1) Where a statement is lodged with the Director verifying that the debt for which a charge was created has been wholly or partly satisfied, the Director shall record in the register of charges a memorandum of satisfaction in respect to the whole or part payment of the debt.

Memorandum of satisfaction or release

(2) Where a statement is lodged with the Director verifying that a charged property or undertaking has been released from the charge, the Director shall record in the register of charges a memorandum of release stating that the property or undertaking has been released from the charge.

(3) Where a statement is lodged with the Director that a charged property or an undertaking has ceased to form part of the co-operative society's property or undertakings, the Director shall record in the register of charges that the property or undertaking has ceased to form part of the co-operative society's property or undertakings.

(4) The Director shall, within thirty days from the date of receipt of a written request by the co-operative society and payment of the prescribed fee, issue a copy of a memorandum of satisfaction or release recorded in accordance with this section.

77. (1) A co-operative society shall in each year, subject to adequate surplus, declare the bonus due to its members and pay to each member at a rate approved at the general meeting.

Declaration of bonus

(2) Where a co-operative society requires to re-invest the bonuses declared for capital development the co-operative society shall issue bonus certificates to its members in lieu of cash payments which may be redeemed from a revolving fund established by the co-operative society for that purpose.

(3) A co-operative society shall not pay a dividend, bonus or distribute any part of its accumulated funds before receipt of the audited accounts disclosing the surplus funds out of which the dividends, bonus or distributions are to be made.

78. (1) A co-operative society which derives surplus from its transactions shall maintain a reserve fund.

Reserve fund

(2) A co-operative society shall within thirty days of declaration of surplus deposit into the reserve fund at least ten percent of the declared surplus.

(3) The reserve fund of a co-operative society shall be indivisible and no member shall be entitled to claim a specific share of it.

(4) The reserve fund shall be invested in the manner provided under this Act.

(5) Upon dissolution of a co-operative society the funds under reserve funds shall first be applied to discharge the liabilities of the society.

79. (1) A co-operative society operating or intending to operate front office services shall apply to the Director for licence to operate a front office in the format prescribed in the First Schedule and pay the prescribed fee in the Second Schedule to this Act.

Front office
services

(2) A licence under subsection (1) shall not be issued unless the co-operative society has complied with the requirements set out in the Second Schedule and—

(a) has for the last three years maintained a minimum liquidity at ten per cent of the deposits;

- (b) maintains a minimum capital adequacy and reserves as ten per cent of its total liabilities;
- (c) has made provisions for bad and doubtful debts in accordance with guidelines prescribed by the Director before declaring any surplus; and
- (d) has maintained any other standards as the Executive Committee Member may from time to time publish in the Gazette.

(3) The Director may withdraw a licence to operate front office services if the co-operative society has failed to maintain the standards set out under this Act.

80. (1) The Executive Member may by regulations establish a regulatory framework for co-operative societies operating front office services.

Supervision of front office
services

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), the Director shall, in respect to a co-operative society operating front office services—

- (a) require the co-operative society to regularly submit its accounts, records and any other relevant statistics;
- (b) collect such data and other information as may necessary for the protection of the members' funds; and
- (c) regularly inspect the operations of front office as may be necessary.

81. (1) A co-operative society shall file its annual returns with the Director not later than four calendar months after the close of its financial year giving details of—

Annual returns

- (a) general meeting and resolutions made if any;
- (b) general performance of the co-operative society during the year;
- (c) profile of new members admitted during the year;
- (d) details of a member who is not actively trading with the co-operative and statement of expected benefits or liabilities of the member;
- (e) details of any person who has exited membership;

- (f) report of action taken in respect of an audit report; and
- (g) any other information that the Director may deem appropriate.

(2) The Director may recommend the de-registration of a co-operative society that has failed to submit its annual return for a period of three years.

PART VIII—INSPECTION AND INQUIRY

82. (1) The sub-county co-operatives officer or any other person authorized by the Director may, on reasonable notice and at least once every year carry out routine inspection into the affairs of a co-operative society to confirm that the co-operative society is complying with the law.

Conduct of routine inspection

(2) A co-operative society shall pay the prescribed inspection fee.

83. (1) The Director may either on his own motion or on direction of the Executive Member or on the application of at least one third of the members present and voting at a meeting of the co-operative society hold an inquiry or in writing, authorize a person with the relevant expertise to hold an inquiry into the operations, management or financial position of a co-operative society.

Conduct of an inquiry

(2) The inquiry report shall be shared with the management committee.

(3) The Director shall consider the inquiry report and may—

- (a) direct the co-operative society to take measures to remedy any negative finding;
 - (b) dissolve the management committee and cause to be appointed an interim committee for a period not exceeding ninety days;
 - (c) adopt the report with no recommendations where no negative findings are made; or
 - (d) recommend the de-registration of the co-operative society to the Executive Member.
- (4) The Director may, following an inquiry, require the Committee or each individual committee member to undertake certain action or adhere to certain directives.

(5) The Director may surcharge a committee or each individual member of a Committee for failure to comply with the provisions of subsection (4) to a sum not exceeding fifty thousand shillings which sum shall be payable to the Fund.

(6) The Executive Member shall by regulations prescribe the procedure of conducting inquiry.

84. (1) The county co-operative auditors may, as may be appropriate or on the application of a creditor of a co-operative society, inspect or direct a person to inspect the books of accounts of a co-operative society where the Director is satisfied that the debt is a sum due and that the co-operative society has failed or neglected to satisfy the debt.

Inspection of books
of indebted society

(2) The Director may apportion the costs of the inspection between the creditor and the co-operative society or direct any party to pay as the Director shall deem appropriate.

(3) The Director shall inform the creditor and the co-operative society the results of the inspection.

85. (1) The Director may inquire or cause to be inquired into the conduct of a present or past member of a co-operative society who has taken part in the organization or management of a co-operative society where it appears that the person—

Inquiry of conduct of persons or committee member

(a) may be guilty of misfeasance or breach of trust in relation to the co-operative society; or

(b) has misapplied or retained or become liable or accountable for any money or property of the co-operative society.

(2) The Director may, upon receipt of the report of inquiry confirming the allegations in subsection (1) require that the person repay or restore the money or property or any part thereof to the co-operative society.

(3) This section shall apply notwithstanding that the act or default by reason of which the order is made may constitute an offence under this Act or any other written law for which the person has been or is likely to be prosecuted.

86. The Director may make an order apportioning the whole or part of the expenses incurred in the conduct of an inquiry or an inspection between the co-operative society, the members of a co-operative society or the creditor demanding the inquiry or inspection in such manner as it shall be appropriate.

Expense of the inquiry or inspection

87. (1) The Executive Member may on the recommendation of the Director by notice in the Gazette de-register a co-operative society if upon inquiry the Executive Member is satisfied that the business of the co-operative society —

De-registration of a co-operative society

- (a) is fraudulent;
- (b) insolvent;
- (c) against the principles of co-operative society;
- (d) is not promoting or likely to promote the economic wellbeing of its members; or
- (e) is prejudicial to the general public interest.

(2) A notice to de-register a co-operative society may only be issued if the co-operative society has been—

- (a) notified of the reasons for the proposed de-registration in writing; and
- (b) given a period of six months to attend to the reason and has failed to attend to the reasons raised to the satisfaction of the Director.

(3) A co-operative society which has been de-registered shall be subject to the winding up procedure under this Act.

PART IX— WINDING UP AND FUNCTIONS OF A LIQUIDATOR

88. (1) The Executive Member, may, on the recommendation of the Director, appoint a liquidator to wind up a de-registered co-operative society on such terms and conditions as the Executive Member shall determine.

Appointment of the liquidator

(2) The Executive Member shall publish in the Gazette the name of the person appointed as a liquidator of a co-operative society.

(3) All property of the co-operative society under liquidation shall vest in the liquidator upon publication of the appointment in the Gazette.
