33. (1) Every member of the Service shall be subject to the provisions of this Part.

(2) A member of the Service who commits any of the acts set out in the Fourth Schedule commits an offence against discipline.

(3) A member of the Service who commits an offence under any other written law shall be liable to proceedings in a court of law in accordance with the provisions of the law under which the offence was committed.

(4) Despite the provisions of subsection (3), the Director-General or an officer authorised in writing by the Director-General may, for cause, take such disciplinary action as may be appropriate in the circumstances against a member of the Service who commits an offence under this Act or any other written law.

(5) The Council shall in consultation with the Cabinet Secretary, make rules of procedure for purposes of this section.

34. (1) A member of the Service who commits an offence against discipline shall, on conviction, be liable to—

(a) a reprimand;
(b) an order of restitution;
(c) stoppage of salary increments for a specified period of time, but not exceeding one year;
(d) demotion in rank;
(e) dismissal from the Service;
(f) confinement to base for a period not exceeding fourteen days;
(g) reduction of salary by not more than one third of the basic salary for a period not exceeding three months;
(h) extra drills or parades or fatigues; and
(i) any combination of the punishments provided under this section.

(2) The Director-General shall confirm the penalty of demotion in rank or dismissal from service if the penalty was imposed by an officer authorised by the Director-General in accordance with this Act.

(3) Where the Director-General or an officer authorised by the Director-General imposes a penalty on a member of the Service, the Director-General or that officer shall record the penalty in a register maintained for the purpose stating—

(a) the name, rank and number of the member of the Service against whom the penalty has been imposed;
(b) the nature of the offence;
(c) the date or dates, if known, when the offence was committed;

(d) the penalty imposed; and

(e) the date the penalty was imposed.

(4) A member of the Service who commits an offence against discipline may, during disciplinary proceedings, be accompanied by an officer of the member's choice for assistance and support.

(5) An officer who accompanies a member under subsection (4), shall not be of a rank superior to the officer in charge of the disciplinary proceedings.

(6) A member of the Service who is convicted pursuant to this section may, apply for a review of the penalty imposed against him or her—

(a) to the Council if the penalty was imposed by the Director-General; or

(b) to the Director-General if the penalty was imposed by an officer authorised by the Director-General.

35. (1) The Director-General or an officer authorised by the Director-General for the purposes of disciplinary proceedings under this Act may, in relation to any matter connected with the proceedings—

(a) summon and examine any member of the Service on oath or affirmation; or

(b) require the production of relevant documents by any member of the Service.

(2) A member of the Service who has been summoned as a witness or is required to produce any relevant document under subsection (1) commits an offence against the discipline if—

(a) he or she fails or refuses to attend at the time and place specified in the summons or, having attended, refuses to answer any questions that are lawfully put to him or her; or

(b) he or she fails without reasonable cause to produce any relevant document.

(3) A member of the Service who has been summoned as a witness or is required to produce any relevant document under subsection (1) shall not answer questions or produce documents that may incriminate him or her.
