- (i) provide for the execution of the functions of the Commission; and

- (j) provide for such other matters as may be necessary for the welfare, security and proper administration of the Service.

PART II—THE PARLIAMENTARY SERVICE

4. (1) There is established a service to be known as the Parliamentary Service.

The Parliamentary Service.

(2) The Service shall be an institution of exemplary administrative and technical competence.

(3) In the performance of their functions, employees of the Service shall not seek or receive directions from any source external to the Service.

(4) Every member of Parliament shall respect the non-partisan and apolitical character of the Service and shall not seek to influence employees of the Service in the discharge of their functions.

5. In addition to the national values and principles of governance set out in Article 10 of the Constitution, and the values and principles of public service set out in Article 232(1) of the Constitution, the Service shall uphold the following values—

Parliamentary Service Values.

- (a) the fostering of peace;
- (b) the provision of non-partisan and impartial advice and services to Parliament, its committees and its members;
- (c) the maintenance of honesty, accountability and integrity in the delivery of services, having regard to the principles of political neutrality, professionalism, economy, efficiency, equality and fairness, courtesy and discipline;
- (d) the provision of a workplace that recognises the diverse backgrounds of the Service employees and promotes national integration;
- (e) the maintenance of the spirit of co-operation in the workplace based on consultation and communication;
- (f) the provision of a fair, flexible, safe and rewarding workplace;
- (g) the inspiration of public confidence in and respect for the institution of Parliament;

- (h) the fostering of understanding and co-operation among the three arms of State, namely, the Parliament, the Executive and the Judiciary in the context of their autonomy and complementarity; and
- (i) such other values as the Commission may, from time to time, prescribe.

6. (1) The Commission may, from time to time, prescribe a Parliamentary Service Code of Conduct.

Parliamentary
Service Code of Conduct.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of any Code of Conduct prescribed under subsection (1), every employee of the Service shall, in the course of his or her employment—

- (a) be patriotic and loyal to Kenya and at all times conduct himself or herself in a manner that promotes the image and interests of the country;
- (b) conduct himself or herself with honesty and integrity and act with care and diligence;
- (c) use the resources of the nation conscientiously and combat corruption and misuse or wastage of public resources;
- (d) respect and observe the law of the land and co-operate with all lawful agencies in the maintenance of law and order;
- (e) treat all persons with respect and courtesy and, in particular, protect persons with disabilities and other vulnerable groups against any form of abuse, harassment or ill-treatment;
- (f) promote gender equality and respect for the rights and freedoms of others;
- (g) preserve and protect the environment and national heritage;
- (h) comply with any lawful and reasonable direction given by any person in the Service having authority to give such direction;
- (i) maintain appropriate confidentiality about dealings that the employee has with Parliament, its committees, its members and its staff (including employees of members, if any);

- (j) disclose, and take reasonable steps to avoid, any conflict of interest (real or apparent) in connection with the Service;
- (k) not provide false or misleading information in response to a request for information that is made for official purposes;
- (l) not make improper use of—
 - (i) any information obtained through or in connection with the office of such employee and which is not yet made available to the public; or
 - (ii) the employee's duties, status, power or authority, in order to gain, or seek to gain, a benefit or advantage for him or herself or for anyone else;
- (m) conduct himself or herself in a manner that upholds the letter and spirit of the values and the integrity and good reputation of the Service;
- (n) while on duty overseas, conduct himself or herself in a manner that promotes the good image of Kenya; and
- (o) comply with any other requirements of conduct as may be prescribed by the Commission.

7. The Parliamentary Service values and the Parliamentary Service Code of Conduct provided for in sections 5 and 6 shall be in addition to, and not in derogation from any others that may be specified by or under any other written law in relation to the citizens of Kenya generally.

Complementarity of values and codes of conduct.

PART III—PARLIAMENTARY SERVICE COMMISSION

8. In nominating or appointing any person as a member of the Commission under Article 127(2)(c) of the Constitution, Parliament shall have regard to—

Qualification of Members of the Commission.

- (a) the person's experience or interest in consolidating and advancing the ideals and objectives of Parliamentary democracy;
- (b) the national values and principles set out in Article 10 of the Constitution; and

- (c) the regional and ethnic diversity of the people of Kenya.

(2) The procedure for appointment of the members of the Commission referred to in subsection (1) shall be as set out in the First Schedule.

10. (1) A Member of Parliament, supported by at least one-quarter of all the Members of the respective House, may propose a motion for the removal of a member of the Commission only for—

Removal from office.

- (a) serious violation of the Constitution or of any other law including a contravention of Chapter Six;
- (b) gross misconduct, whether in the performance of the member's functions or otherwise;
- (c) physical or mental incapacity to perform the functions of office;
- (d) incompetence; or
- (e) bankruptcy.

(2) If a motion presented under sub-section (1) is supported by at least one-third of the Members of the respective House—

- (a) the respective House shall appoint a select committee comprising of eleven of its Members to investigate the matter;
- (b) the select committee shall within ten days report to the respective House whether it finds the allegations against the member of the Commission to be substantiated.

- (3) Where the select committee finds that—
- (a) the allegations against the member of the Commission have not been substantiated, there shall be no further proceedings on the matter;
 - (b) the allegations against the Member of the Commission have been substantiated and the motion is supported by a majority of all the members of the respective House—
 - (i) the Speaker of that House shall inform the Speaker of the other House of the resolution within seven days; and
 - (ii) the member of the Commission shall continue to perform the functions of the office pending the outcome of the proceedings under this section.

(4) The procedure prescribed in sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) shall apply with the necessary modifications to the consideration of the Motion for removal of a member of the Commission by the other House.

(5) If both Houses pass the motion in the same form, the member of the Commission shall stand removed.

11. (1) In addition to the functions set out in Article 127(6) of the Constitution, the Commission shall —

Functions of the Commission.
