incidental to entertainment shall not apply to the National Lottery.

24. (1) Subject to section 7(2), the Board may procure an operator to run the National Lottery on its behalf in accordance with Article 227 of the Constitution and the Public Procurement and Asset Disposal Act, 2015, and the Board may require payment for any document that may be required for the procurement process.

(2) A person shall be eligible to be the National Lottery operator if that person—

(a) has appropriate knowledge or experience to conduct a national lottery in accordance with this Act and any condition imposed on the licence;

(b) has the necessary financial and other resources to conduct the lottery;

(c) is not a state or public officer, or the holder of a political office; and

(d) is a fit and proper person to conduct the lottery.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) the Board may, in considering whether a person is fit and proper person to run the National Lottery—

(a) take into account whether the person—

(i) has contravened the provisions of any law, in Kenya or elsewhere, designed for the protection of members of the public against financial loss due to dishonesty, incompetence, or malpractice by persons engaged in gambling;

(ii) was a director of a licensed person who has been liquidated or is under liquidation or statutory management;

(iii) has taken part in any business practice which is proven to be fraudulent or prejudicial to the gambling market or public interest, or was otherwise improper, which would otherwise discredit the person's methods of conducting business;

(iv) has taken part or has been associated with any business practice which casts doubt on the competence or soundness of judgment of that person; or

(i) has acted in a manner that casts doubt on the person’s competence and soundness of judgment;

(b) take into account any information in the possession of the Board, whether provided by the applicant or not, relating to—

(i) any person who is to be employed by, associated with, or who shall be acting for or on behalf of, the applicant for the purposes of a gambling activity, including an agent; or

(ii) where the applicant is a company in a group of companies

(c) take into account whether the applicant has established effective internal control procedures and risk management systems to ensure its compliance with all applicable regulatory requirements; and

(d) have regard to the state of affairs of any other business which the person carries on or purports to carry on.

(4) The Board shall satisfy itself that the applicant has sufficient appropriate knowledge or experience to carry out the operation of a national lottery and will be able to conduct the National Lottery in accordance with this Act.

(5) The process of procurement of a new operator shall commence two years before the expiration of the current licence.

(6) Subject to subsection (5), an operator who would like to seek for an extension of the duration for running the National Lottery, shall commence the process at least two years before the expiration of the subsisting agreement with the Board.

(7) In case of procuring a new operator, it shall be the responsibility of the Board to commence the process two years before the expiration of the current licence.

25. (1) The regulatory authority shall, upon application in the prescribed form and payment of the prescribed fee, issue one licence authorizing the Board or the person procured under section 24 to operate a National Lottery subject to such conditions as it may deem fit to impose.

(2) The regulatory authority shall, before granting a licence, satisfy itself that—

(a) the applicant has the ability to commence operations not more than six months from the date of issuance of a licence;

(b) the applicant has appropriate knowledge or experience to conduct a national lottery in accordance with this Act and any condition
imposed on the licence;

(c) the applicant has the necessary financial and other resources to conduct the lottery;

(d) no direct or indirect financial interest exists on any applicant by a person who is the holder of a political office; and

(e) the applicant, its directors and shareholders are fit
and proper persons to conduct the lottery.

(3) A person issued with a licence under subsection
(1), shall—

(a) conduct the National Lottery subject to the standards, norms and requirements set by the regulatory authority, all other applicable laws and the conditions attached to the licence; and

(b) ensure that the interests of every participant in the national lottery are adequately protected.

(4) The provisions of any written law relating to the requirements, standards, norms and conditions relating to licensing of gambling activity shall apply to National Lottery.

26. (1) A licence for a National Lottery operator shall be valid for a period of seven years:

Provided that—

(a) the regulatory authority may, in a case where the licence has been granted for seven years, and at least two years before the expiry of that licence, extend that licence for further period not exceeding three years which together with the initial period for which that licence was granted, shall not exceed ten years; and

(b) the operator shall have no rights or legitimate expectations in respect of an extension of the period of validity of the licence other than the rights afforded by this section.

(2) The regulatory authority shall before granting an extension of a licence be satisfied that there exists a just and reasonable cause warranting such an extension including—

(a) inability of the Board to get a suitable operator during the period of the extension;

(b) demonstration by the existing operator of its failure to fully recoup the investment in the lottery; or

(c) the need to recover any period of suspension of a licence occasioned by revocation proceedings conducted under this Act in instances where the outcome of the proceedings was in favour of the operator.

27. The operator shall—

(a) ensure that such requirements as the regulatory authority may from time to time, determine or impose are complied with;

(b) provide such information regarding the conduct of a national lottery as the regulatory authority may require from time to time;

(c) make such arrangements for the payment of such sums out of the gross revenue of the lottery as may be specified by the Board;

(d) do such things within the terms of a licence, including the transfer of property or any rights, other than intellectual property rights as the Board or regulatory authority may require, upon the expiration of a licence;
(e) obtain the approval of the regulatory authority for any lottery and the rules thereof before a lottery is conducted;

(f) allow the regulatory authority or any person designated by the regulatory authority and the Board or any person designated by the Board to enter any premises or facility belonging to or under the control of the operator or a member of the management of the operator, or, premises to which the operator has a right of access, at any reasonable time, if such entry is necessary for the protection of the integrity of the lottery, to—

(i) examine or inspect any machine, document or data in a licensed premise or facility and make copies or extracts from it;

(ii) seize, for the purpose of examination of information any machine, document or data, on the conduct of a national lottery;

(iii) secure a valid and enforceable written undertaking from a person controlling the operator in any way not to change, transfer, cede the control of a licence or in any way encumber the licence to another person without the consent of the regulatory authority; and

(iv) take such steps as may be reasonably necessary to protect the integrity and conduct of the National Lottery.

28. (1) The Cabinet Secretary, the regulatory authority and the Board shall exercise their respective mandates under this Act in the manner that is most likely to—

(a) ensure that the National Lottery is run, and every lottery that forms part of it is promoted, with all due propriety and in accordance with the relevant law; and

(b) ensure that the interests of every participant in a lottery that forms part of the National Lottery are protected.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the Cabinet Secretary, the regulatory authority and the Board shall in exercising their respective mandates under this Act—
(a) ensure that the net proceeds of the National Lottery are maximised; and

(b) adopt strategic and inclusive frameworks for responsible gambling and the conduct of a national lottery

29. (1) The regulatory authority may vary any condition of a licence issued under section 25—

(a) with the consent of the operator; or

(b) without the consent of the operator, where—

(i) a variation is provided for in this Act or to the extent provided for in the licence; and

(ii) the operator has been given a reasonable opportunity to make representation to the regulatory authority in respect of the intended variation and the representation is considered by the regulatory authority as insufficient.

(2) The regulatory authority may, in varying the conditions of a licence impose new conditions or reduce the conditions to the licence.

(3) Where the regulatory authority intends to vary a licence under subsection (1)(b), the regulatory authority shall serve the operator with the notice of the intended variation specifying the grounds for such variation and require the operator to, within fourteen days of service of the notice, give reasons why the licence should not be varied.

(4) A notice under subsection (3) shall be served not less than twenty-one days before the date of the intended variation and shall specify the grounds for such variation.

(5) Where the operator fails to give reasons within the period stated, the licence shall be deemed to be varied.

(6) If reasons are furnished by the operator, the regulatory authority, as the case may be, shall after considering such reasons—

(a) decide whether or not to vary the licence; or

(b) call upon the operator to appear before it on a specified date to make oral representations in support of any written representations made by the operator or to answer any questions which the regulatory authority, as the case may be, regarding such written representations, thereafter the regulatory authority shall determine whether or not to vary the licence.

(7) The variation of a licence shall not prejudice any liability or obligation incurred under or in relation to the licence prior to its variation.

30. (1) Where the regulatory authority has reason to believe that—

(a) a person has contravened any condition of a National Lottery licence which cannot be remedied; or

(b) there is a reasonable likelihood that the contravention in a licence is of a continuous nature, the regulatory authority may apply to the High Court for an order prohibiting the contravention, or, requiring the operator or any other person to take such steps as the Court may direct.

(2) The liability of the operator to pay any money under this Act shall not be affected by a licence ceasing to be valid for any reason.

31. The regulatory authority may revoke a National Lottery licence where—

(a) in its opinion, the operator or his or her representative has grossly violated the provisions of this Act;

(b) a person licensed is no longer a fit and proper person to conduct the National Lottery;

(c) any condition of the licence has been breached;

(d) any information given to the regulatory authority by the operator, or by any person who in any way controls the operator or any agent or representative of the operator is materially false in—

(i) connection with the application for the licence;
(ii) accordance with a condition of the licence; or

(iii) respect to the financial matters regarding the National Lottery or in respect of any aspect of the management of the National Lottery;

(e) any person who is managing a business or any part of a business of the operator or who is a supplier of goods or services to the operator and connected to a lottery operation is in the opinion of the regulatory authority not a fit and proper person to do so due to insolvency, liquidation, imprisonment or for any other sufficient reason;

(f) the operator has failed to take adequate steps to prevent a commission of fraud by his or her employees, agents, representatives, suppliers or by participants in a lottery;

(g) the operator or any of his or her employees, agents, representatives or suppliers has prevented the regulatory authority or any person designated by the regulatory authority in carrying out their duties as contemplated under the Act; or

(h) a person who in any way controls the operator is declared insolvent or is liquidated.

32. (1) Where the regulatory authority is satisfied that there are grounds for the revocation of the National Lottery licence, the regulatory authority shall notify the Board and the operator, in writing of the existence of such grounds and shall require the operator to furnish reasons, within fourteen days of service of the notice why the licence should not be revoked.

(2) Where the operator fails to give reasons within the period stated, the licence shall cease to be valid.
