ACT, 2014
(No. 7 of 2014)
[Date of Assent: 21st July 2014]
[Date of Commencement: 21st July 2014]

AN ACT of the County Assembly to make provision for the establishment of the office of County Attorney, its functions and powers; to provide for appointment, the discharge of duties and the exercise of powers of County Attorney and for connected purposes.

ENACTED by the County Assembly of Bomet, as follows—

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. This Act may be cited as the Office of the County Attorney Act, and shall come into operation upon assent by the Governor.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

   “County Public Seal” means the seal as shall be determined by an Act of the County Assembly;

   “Government” means the County Government of Bomet;

3. This Act shall apply to the County Attorney and subordinate officers who perform or discharge legal functions and such other duties as may be assigned to them in the Office of the County Attorney.

PART II—ESTABLISHMENT OF THE OFFICE OF COUNTY ATTORNEY, FUNCTIONS AND ADMINISTRATION

4. (1) There is established the office of County Attorney.
(2) The County Attorney shall be nominated by the Governor and with the approval of the County Assembly, appointed by the Governor on such terms as the Governor may, with advice from the County Public Service Board, determine.

(3) A person shall be qualified for appointment as a County Attorney if such person—

(a) is a citizen of Kenya;

(b) holds a degree in law from a university recognized in Kenya or its equivalent;

(c) is an Advocate of the High Court of Kenya;

(d) has had at least seven years' relevant professional experience;

(e) has a valid practising certificate; and

(f) meets the requirements of leadership and integrity set out in Chapter Six of the Constitution.

5. (1) The County Attorney—

(a) is the principal legal adviser to the County Government;

(b) shall be responsible for drafting and publication of legislative proposals for the county Executive and advising the County Government and its agencies on legislative and other legal matters;

(c) shall be responsible for negotiating, drafting, vetting and interpreting local and international documents, agreements and interpreting international treaties for and on behalf of the County Government and its agencies;
(d) shall represent the County Government in court in any legal proceedings arising from county legislation or any other legislation to which the County Government is a party or has interest, other than criminal proceedings;

(e) shall handle public interest litigation and represent any member of the public in matters that the Governor or the County Attorney deems to be of public interest;

(f) shall prosecute with the approval and concurrence of the Director of Public Prosecutions offences resulting from the county legislations in county courts or any other tribunal as the case may be;

(g) shall be responsible for advising all government departments and agencies of the county on legislative and other legal matters;

(h) shall be responsible for advising the County Government on all matters relating to the Constitution, national legislations, county legislations, international law, human rights, consumer protection and legal aid; and

(i) shall be the link between the County Government, other county governments and the National Government on legal matters and shall do so in liaison with the office of the Council of Governors and the Attorney-General of the Republic of Kenya.

(j) shall undertake legal audits to ensure that all county and national legislations that are applicable in the county are complied with or enforced;

(k) shall be the custodian of county public seal, contracts and other legal instruments of the county;
(l) shall maintain county property register;

(m) shall advise the government and its agencies on corporate governance;

(n) shall be responsible for all registration services at the county;

(o) shall be responsible for all insurance matters; and

(p) shall perform any other function conferred on the office by an Act of County Assembly, national legislations or by the Governor as may be necessary for the effective discharge of the duties and the exercise of the powers of the County Attorney.

(2) The County Attorney shall promote, protect and uphold the rule of law and defend the public interest.

(3) The powers of the County Attorney may be exercised in person or by subordinate officers acting in accordance with the general or special instructions of the County Attorney.

(4) In the execution of the functions conferred by this Act, the County Attorney shall provide efficient and professional legal services to the County Government and the public for the purpose of facilitating, promoting and monitoring the rule of law, the protection of human rights and democracy and in accordance with the Constitution.

6. (1) The County Attorney shall, in discharging his functions under this Act, have the power to—

(a) with leave of the court or tribunal, appear at any stage of proceedings, appeal, execution or any incidental proceedings before any court or tribunal where the subject matter before the court is touching on the county government or where county government has interest or tribunal;
(b) require any officer in the county public service to furnish any information in relation to any matter which is the subject of legal inquiry;

(c) require any officer in the public service to explain any matter which is the subject of litigation by or against the County Government.

(2) The County Attorney shall—

(a) in consultation with the County Public Service Board, establish such directorates, divisions, sections, units or such other offices as may be necessary in order to discharge the duties of the office of the County Attorney;

(b) supervise the formulation of policies and plans of the office; and

(c) perform any other action necessary in the administrative interests of the office.

(3) The County Attorney may, upon request, appear and advise on any legal matter in any committee of the County Assembly.

(4) In the exercise of the powers and performance of functions of the office, the County Attorney shall exercise fidelity to the law.

7. (1) The administration and the discharge of duties of the office of the County Attorney shall be governed by this Act.

(2) The County Attorney shall discharge the mandate of the office specified in this Act either in person or through a subordinate officer to whom the function is delegated.
8. (1) Despite the provisions of any written law to the contrary or in the absence of any other written law, the County Attorney shall, with leave of the court, have the right of audience in proceedings of any suit or inquiry of an administrative body which the County Attorney considers to be of public interest or involves an injustice on any resident of the county in contravention of the Constitution or involves a minor or involves county property, or a department or agency of the County Government.

(2) In the exercise of the powers of the County Attorney under subsection (1), the County Attorney shall—

(a) notify any court, tribunal or any other administrative body of the intention to be enjoined to the suit, inquiry or administrative proceedings; and

(b) satisfy the court, tribunal or any other administrative body of the public interest or county property involved, and comply with any direction of the court, tribunal or any such other administrative body on the nature of pleadings or measures to be taken for purposes of giving effect to the effective discharge of the duties of the office.

(3) Where a suit, inquiry or any other proceedings is pending before a court, tribunal or any other administrative body to which the County Attorney does not have a right of audience, it shall be sufficient for the County Attorney to file a certificate of the intention of the County Attorney to be enjoined in the proceedings.

(4) The court, tribunal or any such administrative body shall, upon receipt of a certificate under subsection (3), enjoin the County Attorney in the proceedings.

9. (1) No criminal proceedings or civil suit shall be brought against the County Attorney, or a subordinate officer in the course of lawfully discharging of the functions of the County Attorney under this Act.
2. No matter or thing done by the County Attorney, or a subordinate officer shall, if the matter or thing is done in good faith for executing the functions, powers or duties of the office of the County Attorney, render the County Attorney, or other subordinate officers personally liable to any action, claim or demand whatsoever.

10. The County Attorney and County Counsel shall not engage in any other gainful employment.

11. The County Attorney may resign from office in writing, addressed to the Governor.

12. (1) The Governor may remove the County Attorney from office only for—
   (a) serious violation of the Constitution or any other law;
