 - (iii) is convicted of an offence involving dishonesty or fraud;
 - (iv) is adjudged bankrupt, or enters into a composition scheme of arrangement with his or her creditors;
 - (v) is incapacitated by prolonged physical or mental illness, or is deemed otherwise unfit to discharge his or her duties as a member of the Committee; or
 - (vi) fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act.

2. (1) The Committee shall meet not less than four times in every financial year, and not more than four months shall elapse between the date of one meeting and the date of the next meeting.

Meetings.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (1), the chairperson may, and upon requisition in writing by at least five members shall, convene a special meeting of the Committee at any time for the transaction of the business of the Committee.

(3) Unless three quarters of the total members of the Committee otherwise agree, at least fourteen days' written notice of every meeting of the Committee shall be given to every member of the Committee.

(4) The quorum for the conduct of the business of the Committee shall be five members including the chairperson or the person presiding.

(5) The chairperson shall preside at every meeting of the Committee at which he or she is present but, in his or her absence, the members present shall elect one of their numbers to preside, who shall, with respect to that meeting and the business transacted thereat, have all the powers of the chairperson.

(6) Unless a unanimous decision is reached, a decision on any matter before the Committee shall be by a majority of votes of the members present and voting and, in the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson or the person presiding shall have a casting vote.

(7) Subject to subparagraph (4), no proceedings of the Committee shall be invalid by reason only of a vacancy among the members thereof.

3. (1) If a member is directly or indirectly interested in any contract, proposed contract or other matter before the Committee, and is present at a meeting of the Committee at which the contract, proposed contract or other matter is the subject of consideration, that member shall, at the meeting and as soon as practicable after the commencement thereof, disclose the fact, and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any questions with respect to the contract or other matter, or be counted in the quorum of the meeting during consideration of the contract or matter:

Conflict of interest.

Provided that, if the majority of the members present are of the opinion that the experience or expertise of such member is vital to the deliberations of the meeting, the Committee may permit the member to participate in the deliberations subject to such restrictions as it may impose, but such member shall not have the right to vote on the matter in question.

(2) A member of the Committee shall be considered to have a conflict of interest for the purposes of this Act if he or she acquires any pecuniary or other interest that could conflict with the proper performance of his or her duties as a member of the Committee.

(3) Where the Committee becomes aware that a member has a conflict of interest in relation to any matter before the Committee, the Committee shall direct the member to refrain from taking part, or taking any further part, in the consideration or determination of the matter.

(4) If the chairperson has a conflict of interest he or she shall, in addition to complying with the other provisions of this section, disclose the conflict in writing to the Executive Member.

(5) Upon the Committee becoming aware of any conflict of interest, it shall make a determination as to whether in future the conflict is likely to interfere significantly with the proper and effective performance of the functions and duties of the member or the Committee, and the member with the conflict of interest shall not vote on this determination.

4. Within six months of the commencement of this Act, the Committee shall adopt a code of conduct prescribing standards of behaviour to be observed by the members and staff of the Committee in the performance of their duties.

Code of conduct.

5. The Committee shall cause minutes of all resolutions and proceedings of meetings of the Committee to be entered in books kept for that purpose.

Minutes.
