degree or diploma in public health, including the standard of proficiency required for admission thereto and the standards of examinations leading to the award of a degree or diploma, are sufficient to guarantee that the holder thereof has acquired the knowledge and skill necessary for the efficient practice of public health .

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Council may—

- (a) appoint persons to visit any university or other institution in Kenya offering a course in public health and to report to it on the course of study, staffing and equipment available for training in public health and other arrangements available for such training;
- (b) appoint persons to attend examinations in any aspect of public health at any university or institution and to report to it on the sufficiency of the examinations and on such matters relating thereto as the Council may require; or
- (c) require the dean or head of the public health or environmental health department at any university or institution to provide written information to it concerning any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) or (b).

(3) The Council shall forward a copy of any report made under subsection (2) to the university or institution concerned and may, if it is satisfied that the standard of any course or examination is insufficient, and after it has given the university or institution an opportunity to make observations on the report, in writing, require the university or institution to take such measures as the Council may specify to improve the standard of the course or examination.

(4) If the Council, is satisfied that the university or institution referred to in subsection (3) has failed to take measures which are in the opinion of the Council necessary to improve the standard of any course or examination, the Council may cancel or suspend any recognition of a degree, diploma, or other qualification awarded by that university or institution.

2013 Public Health Officers (Training Registration and Licensing) No. 12

(5) A degree awarded prior to a cancellation or suspension under subsection (4) shall not be affected by the cancellation or suspension.

(6) This section shall not apply to universities established or accredited under the Universities Act, 2012.

The Registrar.

23. The Chief Public Health Officer shall be the Registrar of the Council and shall perform such duties as are prescribed by this Act.

Persons eligible to be registered.

24. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a person shall be eligible for registration under this Act as a public health officer or public health technician if he is the holder of a certificate, diploma or degree which is recognized by the Council as making him eligible for registration and—

- (a) after obtaining that certificate, diploma or degree, he has engaged in training employment under the supervision of a registered public health officer for such period, being not less than one year, as the Council may approve;
- (b) he satisfies the Council that, while engaged in training employment as specified in paragraph (a), he has acquired sufficient knowledge of, and experience in the practice of public health; and
- (c) he satisfies the Council that he is a person of good moral character and a fit and proper person to be registered under this Act.

(2) Where the Council does not recognise a certificate, diploma or degree in public health held by a person, for purposes of registration, it shall assess the person's suitability for registration and for the purpose of so doing, may require that person to attend an interview and to undergo an oral or written examination

(3) Despite subsection (2), all certificates, diplomas or degrees issued by a university or accredited under the Universities Act, 2012 shall be recognized by the Council.

(4) The Council may, after assessing the suitability for registration of a person under subsection (1), direct that before registration, the person shall undergo such further period of training or pass such examination as it may specify.

No. 12 Public Health Officers (Training, Registration and Licensing) 2013

(5) The Council shall not authorise the registration of a person unless it is satisfied—

- (a) that the requirements of subsection (1) have been fulfilled; or
- (b) in the case of a person referred to in subsection (2), that the requirements of subsection (1) have been fulfilled and that the person has undergone any further period of training or passed any examination specified by the Council under subsection (3).

(6) The Council may, where it considers it expedient so to do, delegate the assessment of suitability for registration under subsection (2) to a committee of the Council which shall, after making the assessment, make recommendations to the Council accordingly.

(7) The Council shall register every qualified person by entering his name, address, professional qualifications and such other particulars as the Council may prescribe, in the appropriate register kept for that purpose pursuant to section 26.

Application for registration.

25. (1) A person wishing to be registered under this Act shall apply to the Council.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be in the prescribed form and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

Registers.

26. (1) The Registrar shall maintain a separate register of—

- (a) public health officers; and
- (b) public health technicians;

as the Council may prescribe.

(2) The Registrar shall—

- (a) not later than the 31st March in every year, publish in the Gazette, the names, addresses and qualifications of all public health officers and technicians registered in the previous year; and
- (b) subject to the directions of the Council, cause to be published any amendments or deletion from the registers.

2013 Public Health Officers (Training Registration and Licensing) No. 12

(3) Every public health officer or technician shall notify the Registrar of any change in his registered address.

(4) The Registrar may, with the consent of the person concerned remove from the register, the name of a person who has ceased to practise.

(5) A name removed from the register under subsection (4) may, at the request of the person concerned, on the approval of the Council and on payment of the prescribed fee, be reinstated by the Registrar.

(6) Any person may inspect the register and any documents relating to any entry therein, and may obtain from the Registrar, a copy of, or an extract from the registers on payment of the prescribed fee.

Appeals.

27. A person aggrieved by a decision of the Council not to register him under section 24 may appeal to the Cabinet Secretary within sixty days of being notified of the decision.

Offences relating to registration.

28. (1) No person shall practice as a public health officer or technician in any health institution or in any other place in Kenya unless that person is registered under this Act.

(2) A person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) commits an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, or to both.

(3) No person shall, while in charge of a health institution or any other health organization in Kenya, employ a person who is not registered under this Act as a public health officer or technician.

(4) A person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (3) commits an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million shillings, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(5) Any person who, in an application for registration, willfully makes a false or misleading statement or utters a false certificate, commits an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

No. 12 Public Health Officers (Training, Registration and Licensing) 2013

Removal of names from the register.

29. (1) The Registrar shall remove from the register—

- (a) the names of all deceased persons;
- (b) the names of all persons removed from the register under section 26(4) and section 41(1)(e); or
- (c) any entries fraudulently or erroneously made.

(2) The Registrar shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, cause the name and address of every person whose name is removed from the Register under this section, to be published in the Gazette.

PART V—PROVISIONS RELATING TO PRIVATE PRACTICE

Qualification for private practice.

30. (1) Subject to this Act, no person shall be qualified to engage in private practice as a public health officer or technician unless that person—

- (a) is a Kenyan citizen;
- (b) is registered under this Act;
- (c) holds a valid practising certificate and annual licence issued under this Act;
- (d) has served as a public health officer or technician under supervision for a period of not less than five years; and
- (e) holds a certificate, diploma or a degree recognised by the Council under this Act.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be deemed to engage in private practice if he practises as a public health officer or technician—

Cap. 446.

- (a) on his own account and is entitled to receive the entire amount of all fees and charges earned for his own financial benefit;
- (b) in partnership with others and is entitled to receive a share of the profits earned by such partnership and is liable to bear a share of any losses incurred by such partnership, but no person shall be deemed to engage in private practice where he is employed—
 - (i) by the Government or any other public body;

2013 Public Health Officers (Training Registration and Licensing) No. 12

- (ii) by a state corporation as defined by the State Corporations Act; or
- (iii) by any person or partnership engaged in his profession where all fees and charges earned by him are to the benefit of his employer, notwithstanding that he is engaged in his professional capacity as a public health officer or technician.

(3) A person who engages in private practice as a public health officer or technician contrary to the provisions of this section commits an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

Terms and conditions of private practice.

31. (1) The Council shall, in regulations, prescribe the terms and conditions of the practice of a public health officer or technician engaged in private practice.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) shall in particular provide for—

- (a) the services to be rendered by a public health officer or technician in private practice; and
- (b) the employment of a public health officer or technician in private institutions.

(3) A person who breaches any term or condition prescribed by the Council under this section commits an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, or to both.

Council to issue practicing certificates and annual licences.

32. The Council shall issue, in accordance with the provision of this Part and any rules made under this Act, a practising certificate and an annual licence to a public health officer or technician authorizing the public health officer or technician named therein to engage in private practice.

Application for practicing certificate.

33. (1) An application for a practising certificate shall be made to the Registrar in duplicate, signed by the applicant, specifying his name and place of practice and the date of his registration as a public health officer or technician.

No. 12 Public Health Officers (Training, Registration and Licensing) 2013

(2) Every application under this section shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(3) The Council shall, where a public health officer or technician is duly registered under this Act and is not for the time being suspended from practice, within sixty days of receipt by the Council of the application, issue to the applicant a practising certificate in the prescribed form.

(4) The Registrar shall keep one copy of every application delivered to him under this section.

Validity of practicing certificate .

34. (1) Every practising certificate shall bear the date on which it is issued and shall have effect from that day.

(2) A practising certificate issued under this section shall be valid from the date it is issued and shall expire on the 31st December of the year it is issued:

Provided that, where the name of the public health officer or technician is removed or struck off the register, the practising certificate, if any, shall expire forthwith.

(4) The Registrar shall enter in the register the date of issue of every practising certificate.

Renewal, cancellation suspension of practicing certificate.

35. (1) A public health officer or technician issued with a practising certificate may apply for renewal of the certificate in the prescribed form at least thirty days before the date of expiry thereof.

(2) A public health officer or technician who fails to renew his practising certificate within the prescribed period shall, when applying for a renewal, be required to pay such late application fee, as shall be prescribed by the Council.

(3) The Council shall have the power to renew any practising certificate and may, refuse to renew, cancel, withdraw or suspend a practising certificate for a period not exceeding twelve months, if satisfied that the public health officer or technician is guilty of professional misconduct or is in breach of any provisions of this Act or any regulations made thereunder.

(4) A public health officer or technician aggrieved by the decision of the Council in the exercise of its powers under subsection (3) may appeal to the Cabinet Secretary within thirty days of the receipt of the decision and the decision of the Minister shall be final.

2013 Public Health Officers (Training Registration and Licensing) No. 12

Application for annual licence.

36. A person registered under this Act who wishes to engage in private practice may apply for an annual licence in the prescribed form and pay the prescribed fee.

PART VI—DISCIPLINE

Disciplinary committee.

37. (1) There is established a Disciplinary Committee of the Council which shall consist of—

- (a) the chairman of the Association who shall be chairman of the Committee;
- (b) one representative of the Cabinet Secretary who shall be a member of the Council;
- (c) one representative of the Attorney-General;
- (d) the Registrar who shall be the secretary; and
- (e) one public health technician from private practice nominated by the Council, who is not a member of the Council.

(2) The quorum of the Committee shall be four members.

Reference of matters to Committee.

38. If the Council has reason to believe that a person registered under this Act has been, either before or after he was registered—

- (a) convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment, the commission of which in the opinion of the Council, has dishonored him in the public estimation; or
- (b) guilty of negligence or professional misconduct in respect of his profession; or
- (c) guilty of impropriety or misconduct in respect of his profession, it may refer the matter to the Disciplinary Committee.

Functions of the Committee.

39. The functions of the Committee shall be to inquire into any matter referred to it by the Council under section 37 and to make its recommendations thereon to the Council.

Procedure of the committee.

40. (1) Upon an inquiry under section 39, the public health officer or technician subject to the inquiry shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard either in person or through an advocate.

No. 12 Public Health Officers (Training, Registration and Licensing) 2013

(2) For the purpose of proceedings at any inquiry by the Committee, the Committee may administer oaths or affirmations and may, subject to any regulations made under section 46, enforce the attendance of persons as witnesses and the production of any books or other documents relevant to the inquiry.

(3) The Committee shall, subject to any regulations made under this Act, have power to regulate its own procedure in any disciplinary proceedings.

Disciplinary measures.

41. (1) Where on the recommendations of the Committee the Council is satisfied that a public health officer or technician is in breach of any of the terms or conditions prescribed by the Council under section 31, the Council may—

- (a) issue the public health officer or technician with a letter of admonishment;
- (b) suspend the registration certificate of the public health officer or technician for a specified period not exceeding twelve months;
- (c) suspend, withdraw or cancel the practising certificate of the public health officer or technician for a period not exceeding three months;
- (d) impose a fine which the Council deems appropriate in the circumstances; or
- (e) remove the name of the public health officer or technician from the register.

(2) The Council may order a public health officer or public officer technician to reimburse costs and witness expenses incurred in connection with a disciplinary hearing and such costs shall be a civil debt recoverable summarily by the Council.

(3) Where, after the hearing in disciplinary proceedings under this Act the Committee recommends to the Council that a public health officer or technician is unfit to practice as a result of ill-health, the Council may, if satisfied with the Committee's recommendations, withdraw the certificate of registration or practising certificate of the public health officer or technician until such time as the Council is satisfied that the officer or public health technician is fully recovered to resume his duties.

2013 Public Health Officers (Training Registration and Licensing) No. 12

(4) A public health officer or technician who has been suspended from practice or whose licence to practice has been withdrawn or cancelled shall, from the date of the suspension, withdrawal or cancellation, surrender his registration and practising certificates and annual licence to the Registrar.

(5) A public health officer or technician who refuses or fails to surrender his badges, licences or certificates to the Registrar on request shall be guilty of professional misconduct and liable to a fine of not less than twenty thousand shillings by the Council.

(6) A public health officer or technician who is aggrieved by the decision of the Council in the exercise of its powers under this section may, within sixty days from the date of the decision of the Council, appeal to the High Court.

Lifting of suspension.

42. (1) A public health officer or technician who has been suspended from practising, may appeal to the Council for the lifting of the suspension at any time before the expiry thereof.

(2) Where the Council is satisfied that the suspension of a public health officer or technician should be lifted, the Council shall, upon the receipt of the prescribed fee, lift the suspension and restore to the public health officer or technician, his registration and practising certificates and his annual licence.

Restoration of name in register.

43. (1) A public health officer or public health technician whose name has been removed from the register may, after the expiry of a period of three years from the date of such removal, appeal to the Council for restoration of his name in the register.

(2) The Council may, after considering the appeal made under subsection (1), cause the name of the applicant to be restored in the appropriate register, upon payment of the prescribed fee.
