PART III — RECOGNITION AND PROTECTION OF GRAZING RIGHTS, GRAZING CONTROL AND MANAGEMENT

38. (1) Pursuant to Article 66 of the Constitution, the State shall have the power to regulate the use of any land, or interest in or right over land, in the interest of defence, public safety, public order, public morality, public health or land use planning.

(2) Despite the provisions of subsection (1) and pursuant to section 22 of the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution, the management of grazing areas shall be subject to national and county government laws and policies relating to—

(a) fishing, hunting and gathering;
(b) protection of animals and wildlife;
(c) water protection, securing sufficient residual water, hydraulic engineering and safety of dams;
(d) forestry;
(e) environmental laws;
(f) energy policy; and
(g) exploitation of minerals and natural resources.

39. (1) No person shall be allowed to graze livestock within the county without obtaining a grazing permit unless provide otherwise by legislation.

(2) Despite the provision of subsection (1), a permit shall not be required for residents of Tana River County who graze their livestock within their respective wards of residence.

(3) A grazing permit shall be mandatory in the case of—

(a) a grazier from another county who wishes to come to Tana River County with his or her livestock to graze;
(b) a grazier from another county who wishes to transit across or through the county with his or her livestock; or
(c) a grazier from within the county wishing to move, with his or her livestock, from his or her ward of residence to another ward for purposes of looking for pasture.

40. (1) Grazing permit shall be issued by the respective Grazing Permit Committee and consented to by the respective Ward Assembly Committee.

(2) Grazing permits shall be issued only to citizens of Kenya or to those who have filed the necessary declarations of intention to become such, as required by the naturalisation laws, and to groups, associations, or corporations authorised to conduct business under the laws of Kenya.

(3) A Grazing Permit Committee shall grant permits only in respect of the areas under its jurisdiction.

(4) A permit shall specify the period and such conditions as may be necessary.

(5) A grazing permit shall contain a condition limiting the class or number of animals that may be allowed in the grazing area to which it relates, or in such part of such grazing area as may be specified.
(6) A Committee shall specify from time to time the number of stock and seasons of use.

(7) A Committee, in consultation with its Ward Community Assembly, may assign a distinctive number or letter or a combination of number and letter to areas authorised for grazing under this Act.

(8) A permit shall not be issued in respect of areas which have not been authorised to be used for grazing.

(9) In the issuance of permits, priority shall be given to those within or near an authorised grazing area.

41. (1) Every application for the grant or renewal of a grazing permit shall be in such form as may be determined by the Board and shall be accompanied by the appropriate fee.

(2) Every application for the grant or renewal of a grazing permit shall relate to one grazing area only.

(3) In this Act "the appropriate fee" means a fee determined by reference to the number of animals per herd in the grazing area to which the application relates during the calendar year immediately preceding the date of the application.

(4) An application for a permit shall be made to the respective Committee in the areas where the grazing area being applied for is situated.

(5) The application under this section shall contain—

(a) a comprehensive proposal on the nature, orientation and other justification for the need to graze in the area in question;

(b) a disclosure as to whether the applicant has been previously convicted of an offence under this Act or any other related legislation at any time in force, giving full particulars of the offence of which he or she was convicted, of the court by which he was convicted, of the date of the conviction; and

(c) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(6) A Committee shall, within twenty-one consecutive days after the submission of application for a permit, prepare a notice setting forth the names of all applicants, the types of permits applied for, the areas in respect of which the permits are applied and the time, date and place of a hearing meeting, and shall forthwith cause a copy of the notice to be published and posted in some conspicuous public places including offices of the different administrators within the respective Ward for a period of not less than twenty-one consecutive days;

(7) Any person may lodge objection to an application.

(8) Every objection to an application shall be made in writing to the Secretary to the relevant Committee, at least seven days before the hearing of the application.

(9) A Committee may of its own motion take notice of any matter or thing which, in the opinion of the Committee, constitutes an objection to an application, whether or not any objection has been otherwise lodged.

(10) Where in respect of an application a Committee acts in pursuance of subsection (9), the Committee shall inform the applicant of the nature of the objection, and shall, if the applicant so requests, adjourn the hearing for such period, not being less than seven days, as the Committee considers necessary to enable the applicant to reply thereto.

(11) Every person making an application shall, save as otherwise provided, appear in person or by an advocate before a Committee, and shall satisfy the Committee that there is need for the grant of a permit of the type applied for in the particular locality in respect of which the application is made.

(12) A Committee may require the personal appearance before it of the applicant, and of any other person whose attendance is considered by the committee to be necessary.

(13) Any objector may appear personally or by an advocate at the hearing of the application.

(14) A local authority may authorise, in writing, any person to appear before any Committee having jurisdiction in any part of the area within the jurisdiction of the local authority for the purpose of representing the inhabitants of that part in respect of any objection lodged to an application.

(15) Where a Committee considers it necessary to take evidence respecting any question to be determined by the court, such evidence shall be given on oath, and the chairperson shall be empowered to administer oaths.
(16) For the purposes of Chapter XI of the Penal Code (Cap. 63) (which concerns offences relating to the administration of justice), all proceedings before a Committee shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings.

(17) Every Committee shall maintain records of all its proceedings, and, in particular, of the purpose for which an application was made, and notes of the evidence given and of the arguments adduced and the decision of the court thereon.

(18) A Committee shall, within twenty-one days of receipt of an application, record the application and assess the same on the basis of the objections received if any and the interests of the ward, and shall ensure that—

(a) the available areas are suitable with regard to the nature of the permit being sought; and

(b) the areas conform to the prescribed requirements of the occupational health and safety regulations.

42. (1) A Committee may upon expiration, renew a permit if it considers it reasonable to do so.

(2) No permit holder who has complied with the rules and regulations laid down shall be denied renewal of such permit.

43. (1) A Committee shall not grant or renew a permit under this Act unless the applicant has paid the appropriate fee.

(2) The grazing fees shall be determined by the Board, in consultation with the Ward Community Assemblies, with the approval of the County Assembly.

(3) The Board may, by regulations, vary the amount of the appropriate fee.

(4) Any person who contravenes the provision of this section commits of an offence and upon conviction shall be liable to a fine of Kenya shillings ten thousand per permit.

44. A permit shall have effect and force only for the period of its validity.

45. (1) A holder of a grazing permit shall not transfer the permit to any other person and any such purported transfer shall be void and of no effect.
(2) Where the holder of a grazing permit dies, the permit shall continue in full force and effect for the benefit of the permit holder’s personal representative, or, as the case may be, his or her spouse or any other member of his or her family, for the period of four months, or for the period then unexpired of the term of the permit, whichever is the longer, after the death of the permit holder and shall then expire.

46. (1) A Committee may, at any time, when it considers it proper to do so, refuse an application for the grant or renewal of a grazing permit.

(2) Whenever a Committee decides to refuse an application for the grant or renewal of a grazing permit, it shall, by at least 21 days’ notice in writing, notify the applicant—

(a) of its decision and of the reasons therefor;

(b) of the time limit within which, and of the manner in which, an appeal or application for review against such decision may be made to the relevant Panel within 21 days of the denial; and

(c) if, at the date on which such application is made, the areas to which the application relates are used as a grazing area, whether such areas may, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, continue to be so used.

47. In case the permit holder feels unjustly treated by a committee in the renewal of the permit he or she has a right to make an application to the relevant Panel to review the decisions of a committee.

48. (1) A permit shall not be issued to any person who—

(a) has failed to satisfy a Committee, if called upon to do so, of his or her good character and standing in relation to the expectations in this Act;

(b) has been convicted of grazing without a permit or of any offence against any law for the time being in force relating to grazing;

(c) has been convicted of an offence and sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine in Kenya or elsewhere for a period in excess of six months;
(d) is not resident in Kenya;
(e) is under eighteen years of age; or
(f) is an undischarged bankrupt.

(2) An existing permit may not be renewed if a Committee is satisfied that—

(a) the permite is not a fit and proper person to hold the permit; or
(b) the permite has been convicted of an offence under this Act or any related legislation at any time in force; or
(c) has been convicted of an offence and sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine in Kenya or elsewhere for a period in excess of six months; or
(d) the grazing to which the permit relates is conducted in a manner that is in breach of this Act, or any other rules and regulations for the time being in effect, or conditions set by a Committee; or
(e) the conditions of the permit have not been satisfactorily fulfilled; or
(f) the areas to which the permit relates are not in a proper state of repair, or do not comply with the reasonable requirements of health and safety and in the case of private land the owner of the areas or is unable to give satisfactory guarantees that the necessary repairs will be carried out, or due compliance effected, as the case may be, within a time specified by a Committee.

49. (1) A Committee shall, at any time, revoke a grazing permit if it is satisfied that—

(a) the permit has been obtained by fraud or by misrepresentation;

(b) there has been a contravention of any provision of this Act or of any Regulation made thereunder; or
(c) the holder of a permit has not, within a reasonable time, complied with the requirements of this Act.

(2) Before revoking a grazing permit pursuant to this section, a Committee shall, by at least 21 days notice in writing, notify the holder of the permit of its intention to revoke the permit and of the reasons therefor.

50. (1) A Committee shall, at any time, alter a grazing permit if it is satisfied that—

(a) there is an error on the permit;

(b) there has been a contravention of any provision of this Act or of any regulation made thereunder; or

(c) the holder of a permit has not, within a reasonable time, complied with the requirements of this Act.

(2) Before altering a grazing permit pursuant to this section, a committee shall, by at least 21 days’ notice in writing, notify the holder of the permit of its intention to revoke the permit and of the reasons therefor.

51. (1) There shall be maintained a register of grazing areas in which shall be kept—

(a) a cadastral map showing the extent of the areas identified for grazing purposes;

(b) names and identity of all members of each Ward Community Assembly; and

(c) any other requirement as shall be required under legislation.

(2) The Registrar shall not register any instrument purporting to dispose of rights or interest in the designated grazing areas except in accordance with this Act or any other written law.

(3) A certificate purporting to be under the hand of an officer, authorised by the Board in that behalf, that a grazing area specified in the certificate is not entered in the register shall, until the contrary is proved, be evidence of the matters so certified and it shall not be necessary to prove the signature of such officer, or that he or she was such an officer, or that he or she was in fact so authorised.
52. (1) Each Committee shall, in collaboration with the Registrar, establish and maintain a register of grazing permits of every permit granted by it under this Act.

(2) There shall be entered in the register—

(a) the full name, address and description of the holder of a permit;

(b) an exact description of the location and the limit and extent of the grazing area to which a permit relates;

(c) the date on which a permit was issued and the expiry date thereof; and

(d) such other particulars of, or in respect of, a permit or of the grazing area to which it relates as the Board may, from time to time, direct.

(3) The Registrar shall not register any instrument purporting to dispose of rights or interest in a designated grazing area except in accordance with this Act or any other written law.

(4) Whenever a grazing permit is altered or revoked, there shall be entered in the register such particulars of the alteration or revocation, as the case may be, as the Board may, from time to time, direct.

53. (1) During periods of severe drought or other natural causes, or in cases of outbreaks of stock disease, during the life of the permit, a Ward Community Assembly may, in its discretion upon consultation with the Board, authorise a Committee, to remit, reduce, refund in whole or in part, or authorise postponement of payment of grazing fees for such a period so long as the emergency exists.

(2) Such authorisation must also get approval of the Board.

54. A Ward Community Assembly shall permit, under regulations, free grazing where livestock kept for domestic purposes shall be provided for, within the existing law or laws hereinafter enacted.

55. Neither the demarcation of a grazing area nor the holding of a grazing permit shall create any right, entitlements, interests or estate in or to the lands.
56. (1) Whenever, in relation to a grazing area, a Ward Community Assembly is of opinion that there is grave and immediate danger—

(a) to public health arising from the manner in which such grazing area is managed or maintained; or

(b) by virtue of non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or of regulations made thereunder, a Ward Community Assembly, in consultation with the Board, may suspend such a grazing area, by serving a notice requiring—

(i) the immediate closure of such a grazing area or part thereof; and

(ii) that the grazing of animals in that grazing area ceases forthwith.

(2) A notice issued under subsection (1) may specify the steps that ought to be taken, or the things that ought to be done, before such grazing area or part thereof, as the case maybe, is reopened or before the grazing of animals is resumed in that grazing area.

(3) Upon service of notice under subsection (1), persons in charge of a grazing area or persons grazing with the suspended area shall forthwith comply with the terms of the notice.

(4) Any person who fails to comply with the terms of a notice issued under sub section (1) shall be guilty of an offence punishable with a fine of not less than Kenya Shillings one hundred thousand.

(5) A notice under subsection (1) of this section shall not be construed in any way affecting any proceedings, whether instituted before or after such notice, in which a contravention of any provision of this Act or of regulations made thereunder is alleged.

(6) Any person aggrieved by a notice under subsection (1) of this Section may, not later than 21 days after the service of the notice, appeal to the Board.

(7) On hearing of an appeal under subsection (6) of this section, the Board may, with the approval of the relevant Ward Community Assembly, cancel or confirm the notice, and the decision of the Board on such hearing shall be final.
57. (1) Whenever a Committee refuses to grant or renew, or revokes, a grazing permit, the applicant for, or the holder of, such permit may, within 21 days after the date of the service of the notice of, as the case may be, the refusal or revocation, appeal to the relevant Panel against such refusal or revocation.

(2) Whenever a committee refuses to grant or renew, or revokes, a grazing permit in respect of an area which, at the time a Committee made its decision, was lawfully being used as a grazing area, such an area may, if a committee is satisfied that there is no danger to public health, continue to be used as a grazing area—

(a) until the time for making an appeal has elapsed; or

(b) if an appeal is made, until such time as the appeal is first mentioned before the relevant Panel, and thereafter the area may be so used only by leave of the Panel.

(3) Whenever, in a grazing area there is continued grazing, notwithstanding the refusal or revocation of a grazing permit in relation to that area, the provisions of this Act and the regulations made thereunder, shall continue to apply to such areas for purposes of revenue accruals until the actual determination is made.

(4) Should the Board consider it was proper for a Committee to revoke or refuse an application for the grant or renewal of a grazing permit, it shall, by at least 21 days’ notice in writing, notify the applicant of its intention to uphold the decision of a Committee and of the reasons therefor.

(5) No decision shall be quashed on appeal solely by reason of any omission or error in such record, unless it appears that a substantial miscarriage of justice has thereby been occasioned.

58. (1) Appeals from the Board shall lie in the Environment and Land Court within twenty-one days from the date of the decision of the Board.

(2) On the hearing of an appeal under this Section, the Court may—

(a) dismiss the appeal, with or without costs; or

(b) allow the appeal, with or without costs.
(3) On the hearing of an appeal under this section, the onus of establishing that the provisions of this Act in relation to the granting, renewal or continuing in force of a permit have been complied with shall lie on the person making the appeal.

PART IV — SPECIAL RIGHTS, ENTITLEMENTS AND NATURE OF GRAZING

59. Grazing may be allowed on—

(a) communal land;

(b) reserve land; or

(c) any other category of land approved by a Ward Community Assembly in consultation with the Board.

60. (1) Customs and practices relating to grazing shall be taken into consideration as long as they are—

(a) not repugnant to justice and morality; and

(b) consistent with the provisions of this Act, the Constitution and any other applicable law.

(2) The culture of each community shall be recognised in accordance with Article 11(1) of the Constitution.

61. (1) A Ward Community Assembly may reserve special purpose areas within a grazing area including—

(a) farming areas;

(b) settlement areas;

(c) access and rights of way;

(d) watering points; or

(e) any other purpose.

(2) Any area designated for special purposes under subsection (1) shall not be used for unrelated non-designated purposes.

(3) Except with the written authority of the Board and ratification by the relevant Ward Community Assembly, no person shall—

(a) erect or occupy any building or other structure on a designated grazing area;

(b) plough or cultivate any portion of a grazing area;
(c) obstruct the access to any watering place on the land, or prevent or attempt to prevent any person from drawing water from, or watering stock at, such a watering place, or pollute the-water at such watering place or interfere with the operation of any windmill, water-pump, water-pipe, dam or storage tank or other appurtenance installed or constructed at such a watering place; or

(d) carry on any activity on the land, other than the lawful grazing of stock, which may prevent or restrict the residents of the indigenous community concerned from a reasonable exercise of their grazing rights.

(4) A person who contravenes any provision of this Section commits an offence and shall, upon conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand Kenyan shillings or imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year.

62. Nothing in this Act shall be construed in any way to diminish or impair the right to the possession and use of water for mining, agriculture, manufacture, or other purpose which has heretofore vested or accrued under existing law validly affecting the lands or which may be hereafter initiated or acquired and maintained in accordance with the law.

63. Nothing contained in this Act shall restrict the acquisition, granting or use of permits or rights of way within a grazing area under the existing laws.

64. (1) Nothing contained in this Act shall restrict prospecting, locating, developing, mining, entering, or patenting the mineral resources in a grazing area under applicable law thereto.

(2) Subject to any other law, natural resources found in a grazing area shall be used and managed—

(a) sustainably and productively;
(b) for the benefit of the whole community including future generations;
(c) with transparency and accountability; and
(d) on the basis of equitable sharing of accruing benefits.

65. Nothing contained in this Act shall prevent the use of timber, stone, gravel, clay, coal, and other deposits by miners, prospectors for mineral, bonafide settlers and residents, for firewood, fencing, buildings, and domestic purposes within areas subject to the provisions of this Act.

66. Neither the Board nor the committee shall allocate any part of a grazing area to a member or a group of members of a community for exclusive use and occupation.

67. Nothing in this Act shall be construed in any way to alter or restrict the right to legitimate permitted hunting and fishing within a grazing area in accordance with the Wildlife Act and any other legislation.

68. Nothing contained in this Act shall prevent or restrict communities who practice gathering from continuing with their traditional lifestyle within grazing areas subject to the provisions of this Act any other legislation.

69. (1) Every member of the community has the right to equal benefit from grazing areas.

(2) Equality includes full and equal enjoyment of rights of use and access.

(3) Women, men, persons living with disabilities and marginalised groups have the right to equal treatment in all dealings in grazing areas.

(4) The Board, committees and the Ward Community Assemblies shall not directly or indirectly discriminate against any member of the community on any ground including race, gender, marital status, ethnic or social origin, color, age, disability, religion or culture.

70. Unless the contrary is expressed in the register, all grazing areas shall be subject to the following overriding interests as may for the time being subsist and affect the same, without their being noted on the register—

(a) spousal rights over matrimonial property;

(b) trusts including customary trusts;

(c) rights of way, rights of water and profits subsisting at the time of first registration under this Act;
natural rights of light, air, water and support;

rights of compulsory acquisition, resumption, entry, search and user conferred by written legislation;

leases or agreements for leases for a term not exceeding two years, periodic tenancies and indeterminate tenancies;

charges for unpaid rates and other funds which, without reference to registration under this Act are expressly declared by any written law to be a charge upon land; rights acquired or in process of being acquired by virtue of any written law relating to the limitation of actions or by prescription;

electric supply lines, telephone and telegraph lines or poles, pipelines;

aqueducts, canals, weirs and dams erected, constructed or laid in;

pursuant or by virtue of any power conferred by any written law; and any other rights provided under any written law.

71. (1) Any land which has been used, for farming purpose, before the year 1963 shall upon commencement of this Act be deemed to be farming land and such land shall be vested according to the use it was put for.

(2) Any land which has been used communally, for public purpose, before the commencement of this Act shall upon commencement of this Act be deemed to be public land vested in the national or county government, according to the use it was put for.

(3) Private land may not be used for grazing unless—

(a) the owner of the parcel of land consents to such use; or

(b) the land is converted to either community or public land by—

(i) transfer;

(ii) surrender;
(iii) operation of the law in relation to illegally acquired community or public land; or
(iv) operation of any other written law.

(4) The following areas shall not be converted into grazing areas—

(a) farming areas;
(b) settlement areas;
(c) community conservation areas;
(d) cultural and religious sites;
(e) urban development areas;
(f) heritage sites; and
(g) any other area as may be determined by the community, county government or national government for the promotion of public interest.

72. (1) No person shall graze livestock in a farming area without seeking consent of the owner or owners, as the case may be.

(2) Any person who contravenes this Section commits an offence and shall be liable upon conviction—

(a) to a minimum fine of Kenya shillings one hundred thousand or imprisonment for a term of not less than three years or both; and
(b) shall pay the cost of the destruction caused to the owner of the farming area.

73. (1) No grazing shall be allowed in non-designated areas.

(2) Any person who contravenes this section commits an offence and upon conviction shall be liable to a fine of Kenya shillings five hundred thousand or to imprisonment for a term of not less than five years.

PART V — INVESTMENT AND CONSERVATION

74. (1) Where any investment is to be put up in a grazing area, it shall be on the basis of an agreement drawn in accordance with this Section.

(2) An agreement relating to investment shall contain provisions on the following aspects—
(a) requirement for an environmental, social, cultural and economic impact assessment and measures to mitigate any negative effects;

(b) continuous monitoring and evaluation of the impact of the investment to the community;

(c) payment of royalties at 5% to the community;

(d) requirement for the investor to build capacity and transfer technology to the community; and

(e) any other particular necessary for purposes of determining how local communities benefit from investments in their land.

(3) Based on the particulars contained in sub section (2), every investor in addition to social corporate responsibilities, shall negotiate with the Board and the Ward Community Assemblies at reasonable terms.

75. (1) The Board may make rules and regulations for the sustainable resource conservation of land based natural resources within the grazing areas.

(2) Without limiting what the Board may prescribe under subsection (1), the rules and regulations may contain—

(a) measures to protect critical ecosystems and habitats;

(b) incentives for communities and individuals to invest in income generating natural resource conservation programs;

(c) measures to facilitate the access, use and co-management of forests, water and other resources by communities who have customary rights to these resources;

(d) procedures for the registration of natural resources in an appropriate register;

(e) procedures on the involvement of stakeholders in the management and utilization of land-based natural resources.

76. The Board is authorised to continue the study of erosion and flood control and to perform such work as necessary to protect and rehabilitate the areas subject to the provisions of this Act, through collective interdepartmental funds as shall be available and set aside for that purpose.

PART VI — FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

77. (1) There is hereby established a Fund to be known as the Livestock Grazing Management and Control Fund which shall be managed and administered by the Board.

(2) The object and the purpose of the Fund shall be to provide funds to be used for running the activities of the various entities established under this Act in relation to grazing.

78. (1) There shall be credited to the Fund—

(a) sums of money which may from time to time be voted by the County Assembly for that purpose;
(b) income from any investment made by the Board;
(c) any sums of money borrowed by the Board with the consent of the County Executive Committee member;
(d) any gifts, donations, grants and endowments made to the Fund; or
(e) and any funds accrued from any other lawful source.

(2) There shall be paid out of the Fund any expenditure approved by the Board and incurred in connection with the facilitation of administration of the functions under this Act.

PART VII — SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTE

79. (1) The Board shall set up dispute resolution mechanisms in accordance with the law.

(2) In resolving disputes related to grazing area, priority shall be given to—

(a) alternative dispute resolution mechanisms which includes dispute resolution processes and mechanisms that fall outside the government judicial processes; and
(b) traditional dispute resolution mechanisms;

(3) Customary law and practice of the locality shall apply to resolve disputes subject to Section 60 of this Act, the Constitution and any other law.
(4) Any person aggrieved by a decision of a Committee shall first appeal to the respective Panel, and if not satisfied with the resolution of a Panel he or she may further appeal to the Board and then to the court.

(5) The court may—

(a) confirm, set aside, amend or review the decision which is the subject of the appeal; or

(b) make any order in connection therewith as it may deem fit.

80. (1) Where a dispute related to grazing occurs, the parties may agree to use mediation to resolve the dispute.

(2) The mediator shall be designated upon request by the parties from among members of the community.

(3) The mediation shall take place in a private or in informal setting where the parties participate in the negotiation and design of the format of the settlement agreement.

(4) The mediator shall have the power to bring together persons to a dispute and settle the dispute through the following functions—

(a) convene meetings for hearing of disputes from parties and keep record of the minutes;

(b) establish ground rules for the conduct of parties;

(c) structure and manage the negotiation process and help clarify facts and issues; and

(d) help the parties to generate options to resolve their dispute.

81. (1) Parties to a dispute may apply for arbitration to a Committee or the Board as the case may be.

(2) An arbitration committee shall be appointed and given the following powers—

(a) summon witnesses;

(b) take evidence upon oath or affirmation; and

(c) require the production of any document deemed necessary for the arbitration.

(3) The Parties shall be bound by the award delivered by an arbitration committee subject to their mutual consent.
PART VIII — GENERAL PROVISIONS

82. Where a person commits an offence under this Act where no penalty has been provided, the person shall upon conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings or to both.

83. Any person found guilty for contravening the provisions of this Act, may further to the penalties issued and at the discretion of the Board be blacklisted and barred from getting a grazing permit for a period of five consecutive years.

FOURTH SCHEDULE

COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION GUIDELINES

The following guidelines shall guide the Board while conducting community participation activities:

1. Build a realistic timeframe for the consultation, allowing reasonable period for each stage of the process

2. Be clear as to the type of the public, community or profession to be consulted, the issues or matter for consultation and for what specific purpose.

3. Ensure that the consultation document is as simple and concise as possible, providing the summary of the issues or matter for consultation and clearly setting out the questions to be address.

4. Publish and distribute the documents as widely as possible, including but not limited to providing hard copies, community radio announcements and traditional media.
5. Ensure that all responses are carefully and open-mindedly analysed and the results made widely available to the public, including an account of the views expressed and the reasons for the decisions taken.

6. Disclose all information relevant for the community to understand and evaluate the decision.

7. Ensure that stakeholders have fair and equal access to the community participation process and their opportunity to influence decisions.

8. Ensure that all commitments made to the community, including those by the decision-maker, are made in good faith.

9. Undertake and encourage actions that build trust and credibility for the process among all the participants.

10. Be personally responsible for the validity of all data collected, analyses performed, or plans developed by it or under its direction.

11. Ensure that there is no misrepresentation of work performed or that was performed under the relevant body's direction.

12. Examine all of its relationships or actions, which could be legitimately interpreted as a conflict of interest by clients, officials, the public or peers.

13. Should not engage in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, misrepresentation or discrimination.

14. Should not accept fees wholly or partially contingent on the client’s desired result where that desired result conflicts with its professional judgment.
