(c) Suspending it clear off the ground by the head, neck, ears, horns, legs, feet, tail, fleece or wings.

(2) No person shall—

(a) Tie up or muzzle any calf; or

(b) Tie any poultry by the neck, leg or wing.

(3) Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) shall not prohibit—

(a) Any poultry being lifted off the ground by the base of both wings; or

(b) Any poultry being suspended clear off the ground by the legs when they are being weighed;

19. (1) No person shall use excessive force to control any livestock in a livestock sales yard.

Control of
livestock

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) below no person shall use in a livestock sales yard—

(a) Any instrument which is capable of inflicting an electric shock to control any livestock;

(b) Any stick, goad or other instrument or thing to hit or prod any calves; or

(c) Any stick, other than a flat slap stick or a slap marker, non- electric goad or other instrument or thing to hit.

(d) The prohibition in paragraph (2) (a) above shall not apply to the use of an instrument mentioned in that paragraph on the hindquarters of any cattle over the age of 6 months which are refusing to move forward when there is space for them to do so.

No person shall drive or lead any animal over any ground or floor, the nature or condition of which is likely to cause the livestock to slip or fall.

20. (1) It shall be the duty of a livestock sales yard operator to ensure that no animal is kept in a pen, cage or hutch which is unsuitable for the size and species of that animal.

Penning and caging of
livestock

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1) above it shall be the duty of a livestock sales yard operator to ensure that—

(a) any pen in which any calves are kept is of sufficient size to enable all the calves or pigs kept in it to lie down at the same time;

(b) any cage or hutch in which any poultry or rabbits are kept—

(i) is of such a design as to enable the poultry to stand in their natural position, or, as the case may be, to enable all the rabbits kept in them to sit upright on all four feet without their ears touching the top of the cage or hutch, and

(ii) has a door which is of sufficient size to enable the poultry or rabbits (as the case may be) to be placed in, and removed from, the cage or hutch without being caused any injury or unnecessary suffering.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1) above, it shall be the duty of a livestock sales yard operator to ensure that, within the livestock sales yard—

(a) when livestock are penned—

(i) those of one species are kept in separate pens from livestock of another species; and

(ii) they are distributed within the pens, having regard to differences in age and size, so as to avoid unnecessary suffering to them;

(iii) any fractious animal is kept in a separate pen, cage or hutch from other livestock;

(iv) livestock are not kept in pens, cages or hutches which are overcrowded;

(v) adequate provision is made to prevent livestock—

(vi) escaping from the livestock sales yard, and

(vii) coming into contact with any aggressive or fractious livestock in the livestock sales yard;

(viii) a bull is not kept in the same undivided pen in the livestock sales yard as any other animal except that—

(ix) bulls which are halter broken may be kept together in the same undivided pen if they are all secured by the head or neck, and

- (x) bulls which have been reared together may be kept together in the same undivided pen without being secured by the head or neck; and
- (xi) livestock with young at foot are not kept in the same undivided pen as any other livestock, except where they originate from the same group of livestock and are of a mutually acceptable disposition.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3) above, a “fractious animal” is an animal which is likely to cause injury to other livestock.

21. (1) It shall be the duty of the person in charge of an animal to ensure that the animal is provided with an adequate quantity of wholesome water as often as is necessary to prevent it suffering from thirst.

Feeding and Watering of
livestock

(2) It shall be the duty of the owner of an animal which is kept in a livestock sales yard from one day to the next to ensure that the animal is provided with an adequate quantity of suitable food and with an adequate quantity of water at regular intervals.

22. It shall be the duty of a livestock sales yard operator or other person for the time being in charge of an animal to ensure that—

Provision of lighting and bedding

- (a) adequate lighting is available to enable livestock kept in the livestock sales yard to be inspected and to be fed and watered; and
- (b) an adequate supply of suitable bedding is provided for—
 - (i) any calves, dairy cattle in milk or in calf, goats in milk or in kid; and
 - (ii) any lamb, except a lamb which is kept at the foot of its dam, or goat kids in either case under 4 weeks of age.

23. (1) A person shall not bring to a livestock sales yard a calf which is less than seven days old or which has an unhealed navel.

Restrictions on sale of calves

(2) No person shall bring to a livestock sales yard a calf which has been brought to a livestock sales yard on more than one occasion in the previous twenty-eight days.

(3) No person shall bring a calf to a livestock sales yard unless upon arrival he has furnished the livestock sales yard operator with a written declaration signed by the owner of the calf or his agent—

- (a) stating the name and address of the owner of the calf;
- (b) giving details of the identification number of the calf;
- (c) stating that the calf has not been brought to a livestock sales yard before, or, as the case may be, has been brought to a livestock sales yard only once during the previous 28 days; and
- (d) where the calf has been brought to a livestock sales yard once during the previous 28 days, stating the address of that livestock sales yard and the date on which the calf was brought there.

(4) Every declaration furnished to a livestock sales yard operator under paragraph (3) above shall be retained by the livestock sales yard operator for a period of 6 months from the date on which it is furnished to the livestock sales yard operator and the livestock sales yard operator shall, on demand made by an inspector at any reasonable time during that period, produce such declaration and allow a copy of it or an extract from it to be taken.

(5) Where a calf has been sold and before its removal from the livestock sales yard, the livestock sales yard operator shall—

- (a) in the case of a sale by auction, and
- (b) upon request by the purchaser in the case of a sale by private treaty supply to the purchaser of the calf details in writing of—
- (c) the identification number of the calf;
- (d) the date of the sale of the calf and the address of the livestock sales yard at which it was sold; and
- (e) where the calf has been brought to a livestock sales yard once within the previous 28 days, the address of that livestock sales yard and the date on which the calf was brought there.

- (6) Every livestock sales yard operator shall—
- (a) keep a record of the details supplied to a purchaser of a calf for the purposes of paragraph (5) above and of the name and address of that purchaser;
 - (b) retain such record for a period of 6 months from the date on which the details to which the record relates were supplied to the purchaser; and
 - (c) produce such record to an inspector on demand being made by him at any reasonable time during that period and allow a copy of it or an extract from it to be taken.

(7) It shall be the duty of the owner of any calf kept in a livestock sales yard on any day, or of his agent, to remove it from the livestock sales yard within 4 hours of the time when the last sale by auction of a calf has taken place on that day.

24. (1) Sale of livestock at the livestock sales yard shall be conducted either by— Types of sale

- (a) regular sale where the price of livestock shall be determined by the prevailing livestock sales yard price; or
 - (b) sale by auction.
- (2) Where any livestock is put up for sale by auction—
- (a) the date, time and place of every sale shall be advertised in the prescribed manner and such sale shall take place on the date, at the time and at the place so advertised;
 - (b) in lots, each lot shall prima facie be deemed to be the subject of a separate contract of sale;
 - (c) the particulars or conditions of any sale including the condition whether the sale is subject to a reserve price or not or whether a right to bid is reserved.

(3) If it is stated that the sale be without reserve or to that effect, then it shall not be lawful for the seller or any person employed by him to bid at such sale, or for the auctioneer to take knowingly any such bidding:

Provided that if it is stated that the sale shall be subject to a right for the seller to bid, then it shall be lawful for the seller or for any person acting on his behalf to bid at such auction.

(4) If it is stated that the sale will be subject to a reserve price as regards any one or more lots, it shall be lawful for the seller or any person acting on his behalf to give one bid for each such lot and no more.

(5) If the seller or any person acting on his behalf bids at any sale contrary to any of the provisions of this section, any purchaser may refuse to fulfill his purchase: Provided that the highest bona fide bidder shall be entitled, if he shall so elect, to have the property at the price offered by him.

(6) No auctioneer shall make a bid either on behalf of himself or as agent for any other person unless on making such bid, he announces that it is his bid.

(7) A bidder may retract his bid at any time before the sale is complete.

(8) A person who, knowingly—

(a) receives or makes any bid contrary to the provisions of this section; or

(b) makes a bid which he cannot honour or is fraudulent, or is intended to avoid a valid sale which is subject to the bid, commits an offence.

(9) Where a person convicted of an offence under this section is a licensed auctioneer, he shall, in addition to any other penalty imposed, be liable to having his license revoked.

PART VI—GENERAL PROVISIONS

25. The county executive may make regulations generally for the purpose of carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Regulations

26. Any person who contravenes the provisions of this Act for which no penalty is provided commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings.
