The group representatives shall meet whenever required and not less than once in every six months. Unless otherwise required by the Act or these Rules the group representatives may establish their own procedure provided that no business shall be transacted at any meeting unless three group representatives are present in person.

The group shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it.

Not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the group and the next.

Notice of the dates on which any general meeting of the Group is to be held shall be given to all members not less than two weeks in advance.

The Chairman of the Committee, (or in his absence, the Vice-Chairman) shall preside at any general meeting of the Group subsequent to the meeting held in accordance with section 5 of the Land (Group Representatives) Act, 1968 (Cap. 287), at which this constitution was adopted.

The person presiding at a meeting may, whether or not quorum is present, adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place:

Provided that, if a meeting at which a quorum is not present is adjourned, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same way as notice of the original meeting.

The quorum for a general meeting of the Group shall be not less than 60 per cent of the total number of members of the Group.

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of a notice by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless not less than sixty per cent of the members present agree to a demand for a ballot.

Land (Group Representatives) Act

[Subsidiary]

Unless a ballot be demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a ballot, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting otherwise than in person unless he is recorded in the register of members as being under disability. A proxy for a member under a disability need not be a member of the group.

Except with the approval of the Registrar, nominations for office under the constitution of the group shall be of members only, and may be made and seconded by members only, and no member may nominate or second a nomination of himself.

The Committee of the Group shall consist of a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, and three other members, of whom not less than two shall be elected from amongst the group representatives.

All the members of the Committee shall be elected by open ballot at the Group's Annual General Meeting, or at any subsequent annual general meeting convened for that purpose, and shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting.

At the end of his period of office any member of the Committee shall be eligible for re-election.

In the event of a member of the Committee being convicted of a crime involving fraud or dishonesty, or failing to carry out his duties satisfactorily, the Committee may suspend such office holder until the commencement of the general meeting and such person shall then be deemed to have retired.

Any vacancy arising in the membership of the Committee whether by reason of the suspension of a member or otherwise may be filled by a nominee appointed by the Committee until such time as the office is filled by election at a general meeting.

Where two or more temporary appointments have been made the Committee shall convene a general meeting of the Group for the filling of those posts by election unless the Annual General Meeting is due to be held within three months.

The Committee shall meet not less frequently than once every three months.

The Committee shall have power to co-opt suitable persons for such periods as they think fit but such persons shall not have the right to vote.

The Chairman shall bear overall responsibility for the conduct of all business by the Committee on behalf of the Group.

The vice-chairman shall assist the chairman and shall deputize for him in his absence.

The Chairman, Secretary and treasurer of the Committee may attend all meetings of the group representatives and may speak but may not vote except in their personal capacity as a group representative, should they be so elected.

Every member shall be entitled to pledge his own private property, including stock, as security for any loan. The Group, the group representatives and the Committee shall not in any circumstances be responsible for anything to do with such a loan.
