parliamentary and local government elections.

3. The object of this code is to promote conditions conducive to the conduct of free and fair elections and a climate of tolerance, in which political activity may take place without fear of coercion, intimidation or reprisals.
4. All registered political parties and other persons bound by this code shall endeavour to promote the object of the code to enable free political campaigning and open public debate to take place in all parts of Kenya during any election period.
5. Registered political parties and candidates do, by subscribing to this code, further commit themselves -
  - (a) to give wide publicity to this Code;
  - (b) to promote voter education campaigns which may be conducted in concert with the Electoral Commission;
  - (c) to condemn, avoid and take steps to prevent violence and intimidation;
  - (d) to instruct their candidates, office bearers, members and supporters of their obligations under this Code; and
  - (e) generally, to affirm the rights of all participants in an election -
    - (i) to express divergent political opinions;
    - (ii) to debate and contest the policies and programmes of other parties;

No. 10. Statute Law (Repeals and Miscellaneous Amendments) 1997

- (iii) to canvass freely for membership and support from voters;
- (iv) subject to the Public Order Act, to hold public meetings;
- (v) to distribute non-offensive electoral literature and campaign materials;
- (vi) to publish and distribute non-offensive notices and advertisements;
- (vii) to erect non-offensive banners, placards and posters;
- (viii) to promote free electoral campaigns by all lawful means; and
- (ix) to co-operate with the Electoral Commission and the relevant Government and other authorities in the investigation of issues and allegations arising during the election period.

6. All those bound by this code shall, throughout any election period, have the duty -

- (a) to publicly and repeatedly condemn violence and intimidation, and to avoid the use of language or any kind of action which may lead to violence or intimidation, whether to demonstrate party strength, gain any kind of advantage or for any other reason;

1997 Statute Law (Repeals and Miscellaneous Amendments) No. 10

- (b) to refrain from any action involving violence or intimidation;
- (c) to ensure that no arms or weapons of any kind are carried or displayed at political meetings or in the course of any march, demonstration or other event of a political nature;
- (d) to refrain from publishing or repeating false, defamatory or inflammatory allegations concerning any person or party connected with the election;
- (e) subject to the Public Order Act, to co-operate and liaise in good faith with other parties to avoid, in so far as possible, arrangements involving public meetings, demonstrations, rallies or marches taking place at the same time and venue as similar political events organised by other parties;
- (f) to do nothing to impede the right of any party, through its candidates, canvassers and representatives, to have reasonable access to voters for the purposes of conducting voter education, fund raising, canvassing membership and soliciting support;
- (g) to avoid plagiarising the symbols, colours or acronyms of other parties; and to discourage and prevent the removal, disfigurement or destruction of political campaign materials of any party;
- (h) to refrain from offering any inducement or reward to any person in consideration of such person either joining or not joining any party; attending or not attending any political event; voting or not voting (either at all, or in any particular manner); or accepting, refusing or withdrawing such person's nomination as a candidate in the election;

- (i) to refrain from any attempt to abuse a position of power, privilege or influence, including parental, patriarchal or traditional authority, for political purposes, including any offer of reward or threat of penalty;
- (j) to avoid any discrimination based on age, race, tribe, place of origin or residence or other local connexion, political opinions, colour, creed or sex in connection with the election and political activity;
- (k) in relation to the Electoral Commission-
  - (i) to acknowledge the Commission's authority in the conduct of the election;
  - (ii) to ensure the attendance and participation of representatives at meetings of any parties' liaison committee and other forums convened by or on behalf of the Electoral Commission;
  - (iii) to implement the orders and directions of the Electoral Commission;

1997 Statute Law (Repeals and Miscellaneous Amendments) No. 10

- (iv) to facilitate the Commission's right of access through official observers and other representatives to all public political meetings or other electoral activities;
- (v) to co-operate in the official investigation of issues and allegations arising during any election period;
- (vi) to take all reasonable steps to ensure the safety of observers and officers of the Electoral Commission from exposure to insult, hazard or threat in the course of their official duties; and
- (vii) to establish and maintain effective lines of communication with the Electoral Commission;
- (l) to reassure voters with regard to the secrecy and integrity of the ballot, and furthermore, to reaffirm the provisions of section 25 of this Act to the effect that no one should know how any other person has voted;
- (m) to take reasonable steps to discipline and restrain their party office-bearers, employees, candidates, members and supporters who-

No. 10. Statute Law (Repeals and Miscellaneous Amendments) 1997

- (i) infringe this Code;
  - (ii) engage in activities of commission or omission which amount to offences under the electoral laws or otherwise fail to observe this Code;
  - (iii) contravene or fail to comply with any provision of the electoral laws;
- (n) without prejudice to the right to present a petition to an election court, to accept the final outcome of the election and the Commission's declaration and certification of the results thereof.
7. The registered political parties shall execute this Code of Conduct through the hand of their respective authorised leaders to signify their acceptance to be bound by the provisions of this code and as their committal to strive to ensure that their members and supporters abide by the code at all stages of the elections for President, the National Assembly and local authorities.
8. Where, in the opinion of the Commission, any political party participating in any election or the leader or any office-bearer, member or supporter of such political party or any candidate at any election, in any way infringes any provision of this Code, the Commission may-
- (a) in the case of any political party and, subject to subparagraph (b), also in the case of the leader or any office bearer, member or supporter of such political party or candidate, impose upon that party one or more of the or limiting the rights of the political party to do so, and such prohibition or limitation shall be notified to the relevant regulating officers under the Public Order Act in the affected places or electoral areas for purposes of that Act.

- (b) in the case of the leader or candidate or any office-bearer, member or supporter of such political party impose any one or more of the penalties or sanctions referred to in sub-paragraph (a) (i) or (ii) of this paragraph.

9. Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 8, the Commission may either of its own motion or in consequence of any report made to it, institute proceedings in the High Court in its unlimited original civil jurisdiction as may be appropriate in the case of any alleged infringement of the Code by a political party or by the leader or any office-bearer, member or supporter of the political party or any candidate and where such Court finds the infringement of the provisions of this Code-

- (a) in the case of a political party, any act or omission involving violence or intimidation or a gross or systematic violation of the rights of any political party, candidate or voter, such Court may in addition to or in substitution for any other penalty or sanction specified in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph 8 make an order cancelling the right of such party to participate in the election concerned; or

- (b) in the case of the leader or any office bearer, member or supporter of such political party or of any candidate, that any act or omission involving violence or intimidation or gross or systematic violation of the rights of any political party candidate or voter, such Court may in addition to or in substitution any other penalty or sanction specified in paragraph 8(a) (i) and (ii) make an order disqualifying, in the case of a person who is a candidate, such person from being a candidate or deleting the name of such candidate from the list or lists of candidates concerned.
10. There shall be no appeal from an order of the Commission imposing a penalty or sanction under paragraph 8 (a) but a party aggrieved by the decision of the Commission shall have direct access to the High Court under Order 53 of the Civil Procedure Rules.
11. In making its decision regarding appropriate penalties or sanctions, the Commission or, as the case may be, the High Court shall have regard to any other legal consequences that may result from civil or criminal proceedings instituted by reason of the same occurrence.
12. The High Court shall ensure that any proceedings initiated under paragraph 9 are dealt with in priority to all other matters brought before it, and that the decision of that Court is given before the date of the election concerned.
13. The procedure of the High Court in cases falling within the provisions of this Code shall, without prejudice to paragraph 10, be in accordance with such Rules of Procedure as shall from time to time be promulgated
