THE KENYA AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH BILL, 2012

A Bill for

AN ACT of Parliament to provide for the establishment and functions of the Kenya Agricultural Research Organization; to provide for organs of the Organization; to provide for the co-ordination of agricultural research activities in Kenya, and for connected purposes

WHEREAS it is desirable that a framework national agricultural research system legislation be promulgated so as to establish an appropriate legal and institutional framework for agricultural research in Kenya;
AND WHEREAS it is recognised that the Kenya agricultural research system must be reformed into a dynamic, innovative, responsive and well coordinated system driven by common vision and goal;

AND WHEREAS agricultural research is a key component of technology generation, knowledge management and technology transfer to provide solutions for sustainable development of agribusiness;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of Kenya, as follows—

PART I — PRELIMINARY

1. This Act may be cited as the Kenya Agricultural Research Act, 2012.

2. (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires-

   “Board” means the board of the Organisation constituted under section 6;

   “Cabinet Secretary” means the Cabinet Secretary responsible for matters relating to agriculture;

   “Committee” means the Science and Technology Committee established under section 27;

   “financial year” means the financial year of the Organisation as specified under section 43;

   “Fund” means the Agricultural Research Fund established under section 38;

   “Science Council” means the National Council for Science and Technology established under section 3 of the Science and Technology Act.
(2) Despite subsection (1), until after the first elections under the Constitution, references in this Act to the expression "Cabinet Secretary" and "Principal Secretary" shall be construed to mean "Minister" and "Permanent Secretary" respectively.

PART II —ESTABLISHMENT OF THE KENYA AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH ORGANISATION

3. (1) There is established an organisation known as the Kenya Agricultural Research Organization.

(2) The Organisation shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and shall, in its corporate name, be capable of—

(a) suing and being sued;

(b) taking, purchasing or otherwise acquiring, holding, charging and disposing of movable and immovable property;

(c) borrowing and lending money;

(d) entering into contracts; and 29.(1) The provisions of the First Schedule shall apply mutatis mutandis with respect to the conduct of the business and affairs of the committee but subject thereto the Committee, may regulate its own procedure.

PART VI—RESEARCH INSTITUTES

30.(1) There are hereby established the research institutes specified in the Second Schedule.

(2) The Cabinet Secretary may, in consultation with the Board and by notice in the Gazette establish such other research institutes as he may consider necessary for the performance of its functions under this Act.

(3) Each research institute may establish such centres or units as it may consider necessary for the performance of its functions under this Act.

31. (1) The functions of the research institutes shall be to—

(a) advise on, and develop appropriate systems to promote balanced, diversified and sustained agricultural development and to optimise agricultural production through adaptive and investigative research; and
(b) facilitate the use of improved production technology, and to establish adequate feedback systems from agricultural producers in order to achieve and maintain national self-sufficiency and export capacities in agricultural products.

(2) For the purpose of carrying out its functions under subsection (1), the research institutes shall—

(a) organise, design and carry out on-station and on-farm research in their respective sectors of agricultural research in accordance with such policies and in such priorities as may be determined by the Board;

(b) identify production, policy, market, processing and utilisation constraints in the fields of agriculture, water, livestock, fisheries, forestry and environment, and prepare short and long-term research programmes within the framework of the national agricultural research system;

(c) identify and disseminate, in collaboration with other relevant agencies, appropriate systems of mechanisation and technology options to improve agricultural production and provide answers to foreseeable problems facing crop, livestock, forestry and fisheries production;

(d) collaborate with the extension and education services and other organisations, agencies and institutions including schools and universities, public or private, to disseminate research results and technologies;

(e) establish and maintain regular contact with regional and international agricultural research centres to ensure the rapid introduction, evaluation and use of improved technology of potential benefit to the country;

(f) conduct, in association with the secretariat, annual reviews of research results and modify research programmes as appropriate;

(g) promote bottom-up participatory research, planning and priority setting; and

(h) perform such other functions as the Board shall determine.

32.(1) Each research institute shall be semi autonomous in its operations, implementation of its programs and the allocation and management of its resources.

(2) The annual programmes and budget of a research institute shall be as approved by the Board.

(3) The Board may request an institute research advisory committee appointed under this Act or any other person or body as the Board considers appropriate to manage on behalf of the Organization the property of the institute.

33.(1) The management of a research institute shall vest in an institute research advisory committee constituted by the Board for each research institute established under section 30.

(2) The Board shall competitively recruit and appoint such number of persons with such knowledge and experience as it shall consider necessary for the performance of the functions of the advisory committee.
(3) The members of the institute research advisory committee shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as the Board with approval of the Cabinet Secretary shall consider appropriate.

(4) The Board may co-opt into the membership of a committee established under subsection (1), such other persons whose knowledge and skills are found necessary for the functions of the committee.

34. The functions of a institute research advisory committee shall be to oversee the management of the research institute and shall-

(a) make recommendations to the Board on strategic and policy issues related to agricultural research and research program infrastructure;

(b) oversee the implementation of policies and programs of the research institute and recommendations of the program review committee;

(c) advice the Board on the status of programs and projects undertaken by the research institute and make recommendations on the improvements that may be undertaken;

(d) make recommendations to the Board on mechanisms for partnering and integrating basic and translational research programs and for the adoption of research findings within the agricultural sector;

(e) evaluate and make recommendations to the Board on areas of strategic investment and collaborations with other research institutes, research centres, organisations or individuals undertaking agricultural research;

(f) review annually, the operations, administrative organisation and budgets of the research institute in relation to the programs and initiatives undertaken by the institute;

(g) provide a forum for feedback and through which individuals undertaking research in the relevant area of research can submit their proposals and recommendations to the research institute; and

(h) perform such other functions as shall be assigned to it by the Board.

35.(1) The Board shall competitively recruit and appoint a Director for each research institute on such terms and conditions as the Board shall determine.

(2) The Director shall, subject to the directions of the Board, be responsible for the day to day management of a research institute.

36.(1) The Director of each research institute shall, with the approval of the Director General, appoint a programme review committee of that institute consisting of such persons as the Director General may approve.

(2) The programme review committee established under subsection (1) shall scrutinise research proposals of the institute in relation to which it is established and make recommendations on the relevance and priority of research programmes and projects to be undertaken by the institute.
PART VI — FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

37. The funds and assets of the Organisation shall comprise of—

(a) such moneys or assets as may accrue to or vest in the Organisation in the course of the exercise of its power or the performance of its functions under this Act;

(c) such moneys as may be payable to the Organisation pursuant to this Act or any other written law;

(d) such gifts as may be donated to the Organisation;

(e) such moneys as may be appropriated by Parliament for the purposes of the Organisation; and

(f) moneys from any other source granted, donated, or lent to the Organisation.

38. (1) There is established a fund to be known as the Agricultural Research Fund.

(2) The Fund shall consist of—

(a) any funds provided by bilateral or multilateral donors, for the purpose of agricultural research;

(b) moneys provided by Parliament specifically for the purpose of agricultural research;

(c) any interest from loans and advances; and
(d) funds from any other source approved by the Trustees.

(3) The Fund shall be managed by the Trustees appointed by the Board on such terms and conditions as the Board shall determine.

(4) The Organisation shall apply the moneys received into the Fund to provide strategic and predictable funding to agricultural research activities of the Organisation and carry out the operations of the Organisation.

(5) The Trustees may, from time to time and in consultation with the Board make rules for the better management of the Fund.

39. The Board may, upon consultation with the Cabinet Secretary and from time to time, raise or borrow, either by way of mortgage, charge or overdraft from a bank or in such other ways as may be appropriate, such sums of money as it may consider necessary for or in connection with the exercise of its powers or performance of its functions and duties under this Act.

40. The Organisation may, from time to time and, subject to the provisions of this Act, invest any sums standing to the credit of the Organisation, whether in any fund established by it, in securities or in any form of property in which the Trustees are authorized to invest under the Trustee Act, and in such other securities or property as may be approved for the purpose by the Cabinet Secretary for the time being responsible for finance.

41.(1) The Board shall cause to be kept such books of accounts and other books in relation thereto of all its undertakings, funds, activities and property as the Cabinet Secretary may from time to time approve and shall, within a period of four months after the end of the financial year, or within such a longer period as the Cabinet Secretary may approve, cause to be prepared, signed and forwarded to the Auditor-General—

(a) a balance sheet showing in detail the assets and liabilities of the Organisation; and

(b) such other statements of accounts as the Cabinet Secretary may approve.

(2) The accounts of the Organisation shall be examined, audited and reported upon annually by the Auditor-General in accordance with the Public Audit Act, 2003.

(3) The Board shall produce and lay before the Auditor-General all books and accounts of the Organisation, together with all vouchers in support thereof, and all books, papers and writings in its possession or control relating thereto; and the Auditor-General shall be entitled to require from any member, officer, employee or agent of the Organisation such information and explanation as he may consider necessary for the performance of his duties as Auditor-General.

(4) The expenses incurred in and incidental to the auditing of the accounts of the Organisation shall be met by the Organisation.

42.(1) The Organisation shall, within a period of seven months after the end of the financial year or within such longer period as the Cabinet Secretary may approve, submit to the Cabinet Secretary a report of the operations of the Organisation during such year, and the yearly balance sheet and such other statements of account as the Cabinet Secretary shall require, together with the Auditor-General's report thereon.

(2) The Organisation shall, if the Cabinet Secretary so requires, publish the reports, balance sheet and statements submitted to him under subsection (1) in such manner as the Cabinet Secretary may specify.

(3) The Cabinet Secretary shall cause to be laid before Parliament the reports, balance sheet and statements submitted to him under sub-section (1), and such statements of accounts as may he may approve, within a period of fourteen days of the receipt of the reports and statements by him, or, if Parliament is not sitting, within fourteen days of the commencement of its next sitting.

43. The financial year of the Organisation shall be the period of twelve months ending on the thirtieth of June in each year.

PART VII — MISCELLANEOUS

44.(1) The Director General may, in writing, request any person to furnish the Organization with such information or to produce such documents or records as he deems necessary and relevant for the performance of the functions of the Organization.

(2) A person who—

(a) refuses or fails, without reasonable cause, to comply with a request under subsection (1) to furnish any information or to produce any documents or records; or

(b) in furnishing such information, makes a statement which he knows to be false, commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding thirty thousand shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

44. The Board shall keep information acquired for purposes of the Organization confidential and shall disclose such information only to the extent it considers necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Organization.

45. (1) No officer, member of staff, or agent of the Organization shall disclose information acquired under this Act except—

(a) in the course of his duties under this Act; or

(b) with the written consent of the Board.

(2) No person who receives information in contravention of subsection (1) shall disclose or publish the information.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding thirty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

46. Subject to other applicable laws, the Organization shall be exempted from such taxes, duties, fees, levy, cess or other charges as the Cabinet Secretary for the time being responsible for finance may by, notice in the Gazette, specify.

(2) This Part shall come into force on such date as the Cabinet Secretary may, by notice in the Gazette, appoint, and such date shall not be later than two years from the commencement of this Act.

49. All rights, obligations and contracts which, immediately before the coming into operation of this Act, were vested in or imposed on a former institution shall by virtue of this section, be deemed to be the rights, obligations and contracts of the Organisation.

51. (1) Every person who, immediately before the appointed day was an officer or member of staff of a former institution, not being then under notice of dismissal or resignation shall, on the appointed day and subject to subsection (2), become an officer or staff of the Organisation as the Cabinet Secretary may, by order, determine on the same or improved terms and
(2) A person who does not intend to become an officer or member of staff of the Organisation, as the case may be, shall, within a period of fourteen days from the appointed day, give a notice in writing to the Organisation, and such person shall be deemed not to have become such an officer or member of staff under subsection (1) but to have retired from the service of the former institution on the day preceding the appointed day.

(3) The term of any person who is, at the commencement of this Act, a member of the Board of a former institution shall expire on the commencement of this Act.

(4) The Cabinet Secretary may, by order, make provisions with respect to pension or provident fund benefits of the members of staff of the Organisation and with respect to the pension scheme and provident fund of the former institutions.

52. On the appointed day—

(a) all funds, assets, and other property, moveable and immovable which, immediately before such day were vested in the former institutions, shall, by virtue of this paragraph, vest in the Organisation as the Cabinet Secretary may, by order, determine;

(h) every officer having the power or duty to effect or amend any entry in a register relating to property, or to issue or amend any certificate or other document effecting or evidencing title to property, shall, without payment of a fee or other charge and upon request made by or on behalf of the Organisation, do all such things as are by law necessary to give final effect to the transfer of property referred to under paragraph (a); and

(c) all rights, powers, liabilities and duties whether arising under any written law or otherwise howsoever, which immediately before the appointed day were vested in, imposed on or enforceable by or against a former institution shall, by virtue of this paragraph, be transferred to, vested in, imposed on or enforceable by or against the Organisation.

53. On or after the appointed day, all actions, suits or legal proceedings whatsoever pending by or against a former institution shall be carried on or prosecuted by or against the Organisation as the case may be, and no such action, suit or legal proceedings shall in any manner abate or be prejudicially affected by the enactment of this Act.

54. Any reference to the former institution in any written law or in any contract, document or instrument of whatever nature shall, on the commencement of this Act, be read and construed as a reference to the Organisation.

55. All directions, orders and authorizations given, or licenses or permits issued, or registrations made by a former institution and subsisting or valid immediately before the appointed day, shall be deemed to have been given, issued or made by the Organisation under this Act.

56. In this Part —
“appointed day” means the day appointed by the Cabinet Secretary under section 49(2);

“former institution” means the research institutes and advisory committees established under the Science and Technology Act and institutions involved in the conduct of agricultural research established under the Companies Act, the State Corporations Act or such other written law which are specified in the Fourth Schedule and dissolved or wound up by virtue of this Act.

FIRST SCHEDULE (S.13)

PROVISIONS AS TO THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS AND AFFAIRS OF THE BOARD

1. Any member of the Board, other than an ex-officio member shall, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, hold office for a period of four years, on such terms and conditions as may be specified in the instrument of appointment, but shall be eligible for re-appointment, subject to a maximum of two terms of office.

2.(1) The Board shall meet not less than four times in every financial year and not more than four months shall elapse between the date of one meeting and the date of the next meeting.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (1), the Chairman may, and upon requisition in writing by at least six members shall, convene a special meeting of the Board at any time for the transaction of the business of the Board.

(3) Unless three quarters of the total members of the Board otherwise agree, at least fourteen days' written notice of every meeting of the Board shall be given to every member of the Board.

(4) The quorum for the conduct of the business of the Board shall be seven members including the chairperson or the person presiding.

(5) The chairperson shall preside at every meeting of the Board at which he is present but, in his absence, the members present shall elect one of their numbers to preside, who shall, with respect to that meeting and the business transacted thereat, have all the powers of the chairperson.

(6) Unless a unanimous decision is reached, a decision on any matter before the Board shall be by a majority of votes of the members present and voting and, in the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson or the person presiding shall have a casting vote.

(7) Subject to subparagraph (4), no proceedings of the Board shall be invalid by reason only of a vacancy among the members thereof.

3.(1) If a member is directly or indirectly interested in any contract, proposed contract or other matter before the Board and is present at a meeting of the Board at which the contract, proposed contract or other matter is the subject of consideration, that member shall, at the meeting and as soon as practicable after the commencement thereof, disclose the fact and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any questions with respect to the contract or other matter, or be counted in the quorum of the meeting during consideration of the matter:

Provided that, if the majority of the members present are of the opinion that the experience or expertise of such member is vital to the deliberations of the meeting, the Board may permit the member to participate in the deliberations subject to such restrictions as it may impose but such member shall not have the right to vote on the matter in question.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under this paragraph shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) A member of the Board who contravenes subparagraph (1) commits an offence and is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings, or both.

4. Any contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by a person not being a body corporate, would not require to be under seal, may be entered into or executed on behalf of the Board by any person generally or specially authorized by the Board for that purpose.

5. The Board shall cause minutes of all resolutions and proceedings of meetings of the Board to be entered in books kept for that purpose.

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The principal object of this Bill is to streamline agricultural research in Kenya. It acts as a focal point through which institutions in various agricultural sectors are able to engage in agricultural research in a more structured manner devoid of duplication.

Part I contains preliminary provisions.

Part II provides for the establishment, powers and functions of the Organization. The Organization is the body which has been mandated with the responsibility of overseeing and co-ordinating research in the wider agricultural field.

Part III provides for the establishment of the Board, which shall be the administrative organ of the Organization. In particular, the Board is mandated to formulate policies for the Organization and to carry out the objects and functions of the Organization. It is similarly empowered to hire staff for the Organization and in particular, the Director-General of the Organization.

Part IV provides for the secretariat of the Organization, to be headed by the Director-General. The secretariat is supposed to provide secretarial and logistical support to the Board and its committees.

Part V contains provisions on Scientific and Technical Committee which will serve as the advisory arm to the Organisation and will also provide technical, financial and legal expertise to the Board and the research institutes established under the Act.

Part VI contains elaborate provisions on research institutes which shall be the implementing arms of the Organization. It lays down the various functions which these institutes are required to perform under the Bill, and how their operations are supposed to be carried out.

Part VII contains financial provisions. In particular, it provides for the establishment of the Agricultural Research Fund to provide the financial resources required in undertaking agricultural research activities.

Part VIII contains miscellaneous provisions.

The enactment of this Bill will occasion additional expenditure of public funds to be provided for in the estimates.

Part IX contains the Transitional provisions.

The enactment of this Bill will occasion additional expenditure of public funds to be provided for in the estimates.

Dated the 10th September, 2012.

SALLY J. KOSGEI,
