- (a) register the applicant as a dependant of the national hero on his own or together with other persons ; or

(b) decline to register the applicant and notify him of the decision in writing.

(3) Where the Council registers a person as a dependant of a hero, the registered dependant shall be eligible for assistance out of the Fund where such assistance is deemed appropriate by the Council, taking account of the economic circumstances of that person.

(4) In determining the nature of assistance to be granted under subsection (3), the Council shall have regard to—

- (a) the relationship of the applicant to the hero;
- (b) the number of other registered dependants of the hero to be supported by the applicant;
- (c) the resources available for meeting the reasonable needs of the applicant and any other registered dependant of the hero to be supported by the applicant; and
- (d) whether the applicant or any other registered dependant of the hero supported by the applicant is in gainful employment or has any income-generating activity.

(5) The period over which assistance may be given to a dependant of a national hero shall be determined in the following manner—

- (a) where the registered dependant is a child, the assistance shall be given until the child attains the age of eighteen years, or for such longer period as the Council may determine;
- (b) where the registered dependant is a widow or widower, the assistance shall be given for life or for such shorter period as the Council may determine.

(6) The assistance given under this section to a dependant who is a widow or widower of a hero shall cease upon remarriage.

28. (1) A dependant who is aggrieved by the decision of the Council under this Part may appeal to the Cabinet Secretary within thirty days of the communication of the decision of the Council.

(2) The Cabinet Secretary may within sixty days of the receipt of an appeal under subsection (1)—

- (a) confirm the decision of the Council; or
- (b) remit the matter to the Council for further consideration together with any appropriate recommendation.

(3) The decision of the Council under this section—

- (a) in the first instance where no appeal is made; or
- (b) upon reconsideration of a matter on the direction of the Cabinet Secretary under subsection (2) (b), shall be final.

29. (1) The Council may, on its own motion or upon receipt of allegations of misconduct by a hero from any person or institution, appoint a committee of its members to investigate the allegations and make a report to it within a specified period.

Withdrawal of honours.

(2) The committee shall conduct its investigations within the time specified, and, during the course of the investigations—

- (a) may adduce evidence from the complainants or from any other person to prove the allegations; and
- (b) shall accord the person against whom the allegations are made a chance to be heard in his own defence.

(3) Upon receipt and consideration of the report of the committee under this section, the Council may —

- (a) caution or censure the person; or
- (b) withdraw all the privileges attaching to the declaration of a hero under this Act and order the removal of the name of such person from the Heroes Register.

(4) For the purposes of this section 'misconduct' includes—

- (a) conviction by a court of law of a cognisable offence and sentence to a term of imprisonment; or

- (b) any form of conduct which the Council deems to be unbecoming of a person declared to be a hero under this Act.

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The legislative proposal giving rise to this Bill was submitted by the Cabinet Secretary for Sports, Culture and the Arts. The main objective of the Kenya Heroes Bill is to develop an appropriate legal framework for the development of a clear, effective and impartial system of identifying and honouring national heroes and heroines, in keeping with the national values stipulated in the Constitution of Kenya, 2010. Heroes and heroines are defined as persons who, through selfless sacrifice have contributed to the well – being of their communities and the nation as a whole.

Areas of heroism include contribution to the liberation struggle, prophesy, indigenous knowledge, cultural values, scholarship, research, statesmanship and other special achievements.

Part I of the Bill has preliminary provisions. Under clause 3 it is provided that a person will be considered a hero where the person has selflessly sacrificed to contribute to the welfare of the country.

Part II of the Bill establishes the National Heroes Council, which will have the responsibility of administering the honours system. Its functions include formulating policies with regard to the system of identifying, selecting and recommending qualified persons for declaration as heroes, and conducting civic education to stimulate public discussion on national heroes.

Part III of the Bill has financial provisions on the Council. Included in this Part is the establishment of the Heroes' Fund at the national level. The Funds shall be administered by a Board of Trustees appointed by the Cabinet Secretary. The funds therein shall be used for the benefit of national heroes who are in need of financial assistance, and their dependants.

Part IV of the Bill sets out the procedure for identification and declaration of national heroes.

It is intended that the procedure should have full public participation in the identification and nomination of heroes, and the public will be invited to vote against any proposed nominee if they consider that the nominee does not deserve the proposed honour.

This Part provides that the investiture of honours will be done on Mashujaa Day, celebrated on the 20th October in each year.

Clause 25 sets out the privileges of a national hero. These include financial assistance where necessary to such a person and the dependants.

It also provides for the establishment of Heroes' Squares by the Council.

The Bill provides that the honours awarded thereunder may be withdrawn by the Council for misconduct on the part of the recipient or conviction of the recipient by a court for a cognisable offence.

The First Schedule sets out the criteria for the identification selection and declaration of heroes.

The Second Schedule has the oath of office for members of the Council.

The Third Schedule provides for the conduct of the affairs of the Council, and the Fourth Schedule sets out the certificate to be awarded to a person declared to be a hero.

The Bill does not concern county governments.

The enactment of this Bill will not occasion additional expenditure of public funds.

Dated the 1st October, 2013.
