MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Statement of the Objects and Reasons for the Bill

Article 43(1)(f) of the Constitution guarantees every person the right to education. As a necessary part of ensuring quality education, examinations are used to assess whether students have grasped important academic concepts. Examinations are also a means of determining the readiness of a student to move from one level of education to another.

Presently the Kenya National Examinations Council under section 10(2)(e) of the Kenya National Examinations Council Act Cap. 225 is mandated to, among other things, withhold, nullify or cancel the results of candidates involved in irregularities or malpractices. This is an important function of the Council as it ensures that results are a true reflection of each candidate's academic ability. There is need, however, to ensure that this power is not exercised arbitrarily to the detriment of students and their future. Indeed Article 47(1) of the Constitution provides for the right of every person to fair administrative action and further Article 47(3) requires Parliament to enact legislation to provide for the review of administrative action by a court or, if appropriate, an independent and impartial tribunal.

The Bill therefore seeks to amend the Kenya National Examinations Council Act to provide for the establishment of a National Examinations Appeals Tribunal comprising of legal practitioners, teachers and parents' representatives. The Tribunal’s main function would be to consider appeals from aggrieved parties whose examination results have been withheld, nullified or cancelled. This would be in furtherance of the rules of natural justice as it would give an aggrieved party an avenue to challenge the decision of the Council with respect to examination results.

Statement on the delegation of legislative powers and limitation of fundamental rights and freedoms

The proposed new clause 40M provides for the power of the Tribunal to make Rules for the procedure of hearing appeals. To this extent the Bill delegates legislative powers. The Bill however does not limit any fundamental rights or freedoms.

Statement on how the Bill concerns county governments

The provision of education and the manner in which examinations are administered has a direct impact on the qualifications of public officers available to discharge the functions of the county governments under Part 2 of the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution.
Statement that the Bill is not a money Bill, within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution

This Bill is not a money Bill within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution.
