THE KENYA REGIMENT (TERRITORIAL FORCE) (REPEAL) BILL, 2015

A Bill for

AN ACT of Parliament repeal the Kenya Regiment (Territorial Force) Act.

ENACTED by Parliament of Kenya, as follows—

1. This Act may be cited as the Kenya Regiment (Territorial Force) (Repeal) Act, 2015.

2. The Kenya Regiment (Territorial Force) Act is repealed.

3. All subsidiary legislation made under the Kenya Regiment (Territorial Force) Act (now repealed) shall stand revoked on the date of the commencement of this Act.
MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of this Bill is to repeal the Kenya Regiment (Territorial Force) Act, Chapter 200 of the Laws of Kenya.

That Act is a carry-over from the pre-independence period, having been enacted in 1937.

The Force has since been disbanded and a new legal framework for the defence forces established by new legislation, thus rendering the current Act irrelevant.

Since there is no intention of replacing the Act, the Bill seeks to expressly revoke the subsidiary legislation made thereunder as provided under section 24 – of the Interpretation and General Provisions Act (Chapter 2 of the Laws of Kenya).

This Bill is a Bill not concerning county governments.

The enactment of this shall not occasion any additional expenditure of public funds.

Dated the 22nd July, 2015.

ADEN DUALE,
Leader of Majority.
