(2) The annual estimates shall make provision for all the estimated expenditure of the scheme for the financial year concerned and, in particular, shall provide for the—

(a) payment of the salaries, allowances, and other charges in respect of the employee of the scheme;

(b) payment of benefits and other charges which are payable out of the funds of the scheme;
(c) funding of the registration, monitoring and evaluation activities of the scheme;

(d) maintenance of the buildings and grounds of the scheme;

(e) funding of training, research and development of activities of the scheme;

(f) reserve funds to meet future or contingent liabilities in relation to retirement benefits, insurance or replacement of buildings or equipment; and

(g) such other matters as the Board may consider fit.

(3) The annual estimates shall be approved by the Board before the commencement of the financial year to which they relate.

(4) The expenditure of the scheme shall not be incurred except in accordance with the annual estimates approved by the Board.

41. (1) The Board shall cause to be kept proper books and records of account of the income, expenditure, assets and liabilities.

(2) Within a period of three months after the end of each financial year, the Board shall submit to an Auditor who is recognized and approved by the Authority the accounts of the scheme in respect of that year together with—

(a) balance sheet showing in detail the assets and liabilities of the scheme as at the end of the financial year.

(b) a statement of the income and expenditure of the scheme during that year; and

(c) Such other statements as may be required by the Authority.

(3) The annual accounts of the scheme shall be prepared, audited and reported upon in accordance with the Retirement Benefit Act and other relevant laws.

42. The financial year of the scheme shall be the period of twelve months ending on the thirtieth June in each year.
43. Annual investment income earned by the scheme shall, after deduction of all expenses and costs properly paid out of the scheme and any appropriation to a reserve account approved by the Board, be credited to members’ accounts on a pro-rata basis.

44. (1) The scheme may be reviewed by an actuary appointed by the Board as provided for in the Retirement Benefits Act may be considered by the Board.

(2) The Actuary appointed under subsection (1) shall—

(a) prepare a report on the state of the scheme; and

(b) recommend any necessary action to be taken.

(3) The Actuary shall submit the report prepared under subsection (2) to the Board within the stipulated time in the instrument of appointment.

(4) The Board shall, within six months of the receipt of such report, consider any recommendations made by the Actuary and in so doing, may take any action recommended by the Actuary.

PART V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

45. Where there is a conflict between the provisions of this Act and the provisions of the Retirement Benefits Act, the provisions of the Retirement Benefits Act shall prevail.

46. (1) The Board shall—

(a) ensure that the scheme is at all times managed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the Retirement Benefits Act and any other applicable law; and

(b) take reasonable care to ensure that the management of the scheme or safe keeping of the assets of the scheme is carried out in the best interests of the members of the scheme.

(2) The Administrator, fund Manager and Custodian shall—

(a) report to the Board and the Authority, as soon as reasonably practicable, any unusual occurrence with respect to the scheme which in their view could adversely affect the rights of the owner of a member’s account under the scheme; and
(b) report to the Board and the Authority, as soon as is reasonably practicable, if a sponsor has not remitted the required contribution and such remittance remains due for more than ten days.

47. No action or omission by any member of the Board, or employee of the scheme shall, if the act was done in good faith for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act or any other law, subject the person to any liability, action, claim or demand.

48. (1) A person who—
(a) wilfully fails to remit contribution to the scheme as required;
(b) knowingly gives false information to the scheme; or
(c) being a Trustee or employee of the scheme, wilfully misappropriates the assets of the scheme, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five million shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.

(2) Where an offence under this section is committed by a body corporate, every person who at the time of the commission of the offence was—
(a) a director, general manager, secretary of the company or other similar officer of the body corporate; or
(b) purporting to act in any such capacity as provided in paragraph (a), commits that offence.

49. (1) Notwithstanding the provision of Section 25, where a sponsor, having made deduction from a member’s emoluments for remittance to the scheme, fails to remit the Contribution within fifteen days of the deduction, the scheme shall, after giving such sponsor not less than seven days’ notice, institute proceedings for the recovery of the deduction.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) shall be in writing and copied to the Authority, and shall—
(a) require the sponsor to pay the sum deducted to the scheme within seven days of the notice; and
(b) inform the sponsor that if he fails to pay such sum before the expiration of the notice, proceedings for summary recovery of the sum shall be filed in court without further reference to him.

(3) Any sum which is the subject of proceedings of summary recovery under this section shall attract a compound interest at the rate of three per cent per month.

(4) Without prejudice to any proceedings instituted under the provisions of this section, a person who refuses or fails to comply with a notice given to him under subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings, or in the case of a natural person, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or to both;

(5) Where an offence under subsection (4) is a continuing offence, the person convicted shall, in addition to the penalty prescribed in that subsection be liable to a further fine of one thousand shillings for every day or part thereof during which the offence continues.

50. A person who—
(a) contravenes any provision of this Act which is expressly stated to be an offence but for which no other penalty is prescribed; or
(b) fails to comply with any direction given by the Authority.

Commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding Kenya Shillings, one hundred thousand or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to both.

51. The Cabinet Secretary in consultation with the Board shall make Regulations generally for the carrying out of any provisions of this Act.

52. The Contributions by the members of the scheme who were previously employed by the national government shall be phased in the first three years after the Commencement Date, at the rates of two per cent, five per cent and seven and a half per cent of a member's Pensionable Emoluments in the first, second and third years respectively.

53. The sponsors and members of the scheme shall be exempt from making Tier II contributions to National Social Security Fund.
PART VI—SAVING AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.

54. This Act applies to all Eligible Employees in County Public Service and Associated Organisations as follows —

(a) Eligible Employees to whom this Act applies and who prior to its Commencement Date were members of a contributory pension scheme, may subject to the Regulations made by the Cabinet Secretary, port any such contributions to the fund.

(b) Eligible Employees to whom this Act applies and who join a sponsor on or after the Commencement Date and were members of a contributory pension scheme, may subject to the Regulations made by the Cabinet Secretary, port any such contributions to the fund.

(c) a person who was an employee of National Government and whose remaining period of service is five years or less, is not eligible to join the scheme and shall have his or her pension paid out under the provisions of the Pensions Act, Cap. 189 and the Widows’ and Children Pensions Act Cap. 195 or any other relevant legislation.

(d) a person who was an employee of a Local Authority and was a member of Local Authorities Pensions Trust and whose remaining period of service is five years or less, is not eligible to join the scheme and shall have his or her pension paid under the provisions of the Local Authorities Pensions Trust in accordance with Legal Notice No 50 or any other relevant legislation.

(e) those Eligible Employees to whom this Act applies and who prior to its Commencement Date were employees of the National Government shall have their Pension paid out under the Pensions Act, Cap. 189 and the Widows’ and Children Pensions Act, Cap. 195, for the period they served the National Government.

(f) those Eligible Employees to whom this Act applies and who prior to its commencement date were employee of the local authorities and who are eligible for benefits under a defined benefits scheme shall have their prior Pension benefits paid out of the closed funds, as the case may be, for the period they served the local authorities.

55. (1) An Eligible Employee of a sponsor who immediately before the Commencement Date of this Act was a member of the, Local Authorities Provident fund or the Local Authorities Pension Trust fund or Laptrust Umbrella Retirement fund shall, upon the commencement of this Act be deemed to be a member of the scheme.

(2) The Local Authorities Provident fund and the Local Authorities Pensions Trust fund and Laptrust Umbrella Retirement fund shall, upon the Commencement Date of this Act, remain as closed funds to new entrants and must ensure the preservation of all accrued rights of members but shall continue paying any pensions and benefits as and when they fall due.

(3) The staff of the Existing schemes engaged in the administration of the Existing schemes on the Commencement Date shall, upon the commencement of this Act, and subject to any suitability test conducted by the Board of Trustees, provide administration services to the scheme and the Existing schemes

56. (1) Any Eligible Employees who joined the service of a sponsor on permanent and pensionable terms after the first general elections under the Constitution shall be deemed to be members of the scheme with effect from the date of employment.

(2) Eligible Employees of a sponsor who are employed on contractual terms may opt, upon agreement with the sponsor, to join the scheme in lieu of gratuity for the duration of their contract term provided that the extent of Contribution in such case shall be in line with section 26 of this Act.

(5) A trustee or employee of the scheme shall not transact any business or trade with the scheme.
MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The principal object of this Bill is to establish the County Government's Retirement scheme as a mandatory scheme for all County Government Officers; provide for the establishment of the scheme's Board of Trustees and provide for the scheme's management and administration. The Bill proposes to have the scheme offer lump sum payments as provident, periodic payments as pensions and income draw-downs. The proposed scheme will transition the former local authorities' and national Government employees under a national retirement scheme and retirement arrangements into one universal scheme for all the forty seven county governments besides being open to other public officers and any other person approved by the Board.

Part I (clauses 1-5) contains preliminary matters.

This part contains the short title, interpretation of terms, the application clause which includes all County Government employees as well as any public institution, organization or state officer who may wish to join and the scope of the Bill which is to extend the range of those who may access the scheme’s services.

Part II (clauses 6-21) provides for the establishment of the scheme. It establishes the County Retirement scheme fund and its Board of Trustees. It provides the procedure for appointment of the Trustees and the necessary qualifications. It also provides the Trustees’ functions and powers and sets their tenure to three years renewable once based on performance.

Part III (clauses 22-37) contains provisions on the administration of the scheme and provides for the appointment of the fund Manager and the Custodian. It also sets out their functions. The functions of the Administrator, who is the Chief Executive Officer, are also set out. Further, the part provides for membership of the scheme without a sponsor, the vesting of benefits, and withdrawal from the retirement savings account and retirement from the service among others. Finally, it sets out the prohibited payments from the scheme.

Part IV (clauses 38-44) provides for the establishment and management of the County Governments' Retirement scheme. It contains the financial provisions and establishes the County Retirement scheme fund. It also provides how surplus funds may be invested as well and sets out a requirement for the Board to have a reserve account.

Part V (clauses 45-53) sets out the general provisions including the duty of care of the Board, protection of the Trustees and employees of the scheme from personal liability, offences, and proceedings for recovery of deductions from employers and a general penalty clause. It also contains a provision on the making of regulations and gives this power to the Board, in consultation with the Cabinet Secretary. The repeal of the Local Authorities Provident fund Act is also provided for in this part. Finally, this part contains a provision exempting members of the scheme from contributing to other statutory schemes and concludes with the savings and transitional provisions.

Statement on the delegation of legislative powers and limitation of fundamental rights and freedoms

This Bill does not delegate any legislative powers nor does it limit fundamental rights and freedoms.

Statement on how the Bill concerns county governments

The Bill concerns county governments in terms of Articles 110(1) (a) of the Constitution in that it contains provisions that affect the functions and powers of the county governments as set out in the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution.

Statement that the Bill is not a money Bill within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution

This Bill is not a money Bill within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution.

Dated the 23rd February, 2018.

JOHNSON SAKAJA,
Chairperson, Committee of Labour and Social Services.
