PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY THE GOVERNMENT PRINTER, NAIROBI
THE RETIREMENT BENEFITS (DEPUTY PRESIDENT AND DESIGNATED STATE OFFICERS) (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2018

A Bill for

AN ACT of Parliament to amend the Retirement Benefits (Deputy President and Designated State Officers) Act

ENACTED by the Parliament of Kenya, as follows—

1. This Act may be cited as the Retirement Benefits (Deputy President and Designated State Officers) (Amendment) Act, 2018.

2. Section 2 of the Retirement Benefits (Deputy President and Designated State Officers) Act, 2015, hereinafter referred to as the “principal Act”, is amended by deleting the definition of the term “retired vice-president” and substituting therefore—

“retired Vice-President” means a person who, having held the office of the Vice-President at any time after 1st January, 1993, has ceased to hold office as such in the manner specified in the Constitution.

3. Section 3 of the principal Act is amended by deleting the words “sections 5(3)” appearing immediately after the words “subject to” and substituting therefor the words “sections 8A”.

4. The principal Act is amended by inserting the following new section immediately after section 3—

3A. (1) There is established a joint committee on entitlements comprising of—

(a) leaders of the Majority Party in the National Assembly and the Senate;
(b) leaders of the Minority Party in the National Assembly and the Senate;
(c) whips of the Majority Party in the National Assembly and the Senate;
(d) whips of the Minority Party in the National Assembly and the Senate; and

(e) five members, two of whom shall be senators, appointed by Parliament, from among its members in the following manner—

(i) three shall be appointed by the party or coalition of parties forming the national government, of whom at least one shall be a woman; and

(ii) two shall be appointed by the party or coalition of parties not forming the national government, of whom at least one shall be a woman.

(2) The Committee shall consider—

(a) a petition that seeks to alter the entitlements of an entitled person under this Act;

(b) a complaint or dispute regarding the entitlements due to an entitled person under this Act; and

(c) any other petition committed to the committee by the Speaker for consideration.

(3) The Committee shall—

(a) consider a petition under subsection (2) within thirty days of receipt of such petition; and

(b) table its report in the National Assembly and the Senate for adoption.

5. Section 5 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) in the marginal note by deleting the words “an entitled person” appearing immediately after the words “benefits of” and substituting therefor the words “a Speaker”; and
(b) by deleting subsection (3).

6. The principal Act is amended by inserting the following new section immediately after section 8—

Death of entitled person while in service

8A. Where an entitled person dies in service after the commencement of this Act, a lump sum payment on death calculated as a sum equal to five times the entitled person’s annual salary shall become payable to the entitled person’s legal personal representatives.

7. The principal Act is amended by deleting section 10 and substituting therefor the following new section—

Children’s Benefits.

10. Upon the death of an entitled person who is in receipt of, or who is entitled to a pension under this Act, the surviving eligible child shall be entitled to—

(a) if there is only one eligible child, pension at the rate of twenty-five percent of the pension entitlement of the deceased entitled person; or

(b) if there are two or more eligible children, a pension at the rate of fifty percent of the pension entitlement of the deceased entitled person to be divided equally for the benefit of each child.

8. Section 12 of the principal Act is amended by—

(a) renumbering the existing provision as subsection (1); and

(b) inserting the following new subsections immediately after subsection (1)—

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), where an entitled person is entitled to provision of security, the entitled person shall be accorded the opportunity to select the officers to serve them.
(3) Where there is a need to reduce or alter the security arrangements of an entitled person, the Inspector-General shall refer the matter to the joint committee on entitlements for approval.

(4) The committee shall consider the matter referred to it under subsection (3) within fourteen days and table its reports before the National Assembly and the Senate for consideration and adoption.

9. The Second schedule of the principal Act is amended in paragraph (j) by inserting the words “not less than six and a not exceeding ten” immediately before the words “armed security guards”.

10. The Third schedule of the principal Act is amended in paragraph (j) by inserting the words “not less than six and not exceeding ten” immediately before the words “armed security guards”.

Amendment of the Second Schedule of No. 8 of 2015.

Amendment of the Third Schedule of No. 8 of 2015.
MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Statement of the Objects and Reasons for the Bill

The Principal object of this Bill is to amend the Retirement Benefits (Deputy President and Designated State Officers) Act, 2015 to provide for the procedure to be followed when altering or modifying the entitlements due to a Deputy President and Designated State Officers as provided for in the Act.

The amendment seeks to ensure the executive does no use alteration or modification of entitlements due to an entitled person as a tool to intimidate or maltreat the entitled person. The amendment establishes a joint committee within Parliament to review decisions of the executive to alter or modify the personnel attached to the entitled person.

Statement on the delegation of legislative powers and limitation of fundamental rights and freedoms

The Bill does not delegate legislative powers nor does it limit the fundamental rights and freedoms.

Statement on how the Bill concerns county governments

The Bill affects the powers and functions of the county government and it is therefore a Bill that concerns counties in terms of Article 110(1)(a) of the Constitution.

Statement that the Bill is not a money Bill, within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution

This Bill is not a money Bill within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution.

Dated the 19th January, 2018.

LEDAMA OLEKINA,
Senator.
