(3) A warehouse operator shall notify the central registry of the issuance of a duplicate for a warehouse receipt that is lost, stolen or destroyed.

(4) Any person deals presents or deals with the original receipt after a replacement receipt has been issued commits an offence.

28. A duplicate receipt issued under section 27 shall have the same standing as the original and shall not impose upon the warehouse operator any additional liability.

Warranty and standing of duplicate receipts.

PART V—OBLIGATIONS AND RIGHTS OF WAREHOUSE OPERATOR UPON THEIR RECEIPTS

29. (1) A Warehouse operator shall deliver the goods referred to in a warehouse receipt to the holder of the receipt or depositor upon the presentation of the receipt.

Obligation of warehouse operator to deliver.

(2) Where the warehouse operator refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with the provisions of this section, the warehouse operator shall be required to prove the existence of any lawful act for the refusal or failure.

30. Where a warehouse operator delivers agricultural commodities in a warehouse to a person who is not lawfully entitled to the possession, the warehouse operator shall be liable for loss.

Wrongful release of goods.

31. (1) A warehouse operator may commingle agricultural commodities of the same type and grade.

Separation of goods and fungible goods.

(2) A warehouse operator shall be liable, to each depositor or holder, for the care and redelivery of a depositor or holder of the commingled agricultural commodity to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the agricultural commodity had been stored separately.

32. (1) If goods are delivered to the warehouse operator by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying title to them to a purchaser in good faith for value would bind the owner, and a negotiable receipt is issued for them, they cannot thereafter, while in possession of the warehouse operator, be attached by garnishment or otherwise, or be levied on under an execution, unless the receipt be first surrendered to the warehouse operator, or its negotiation enjoined.

Attachment or levy upon goods for which negotiable receipt has been issued.

(2) The warehouse operator shall in no case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the receipt is surrendered to the operator or impounded by the court.

33. (1) A warehouse operator has a lien on the goods covered by a warehouse receipt or on the proceeds of those goods in his or her possession for all lawful charges in the storage contract.

Warehouse operator's lien.

(2) A warehouse operator is entitled to all remedies allowed by law to a creditor against a debtor, for the collection from the depositor of all charges and advances which the depositor has expressly contracted with the warehouse operator to pay.

(3) A warehouse operator's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied by the warehouse operator giving a written notice to the person on whose account the goods are held, and to any other person known by the warehouse operator to claim an interest in the goods:

Provided that:

- (b) if the warehouse receipt has been registered in the Central Registry, the warehouse operator shall also give written notice to the chief executive officer.

PART VI—NEGOTIATION AND TRANSFER OF RECEIPTS

34. A warehouse receipt issued to a person may be negotiated by endorsement and delivery to another specified person.

Negotiation by endorsement.

35. A warehouse receipt shall be regarded as duly negotiated in the manner stated under section 35 to a person who purchases it in good faith, for value without notice of any defect or claim to it by any other person.

Persons capable of negotiating a Warehouse Receipt.

36. Subject to the provisions of this section, a person to whom a receipt has been duly negotiated shall acquire—

Rights acquired after negotiation of warehouse receipts.

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The objective of this Bill is to provide a legal framework for the development and regulation of a warehouse receipt system for agricultural commodities to address marketing challenges associated with cereals and grain subsectors in Kenya.

Part I (Clauses 1-2) contains preliminary provisions.

Part II (Clauses 3-16) provides for the establishment of the Warehouse Receipt System Council as a body corporate, the membership, the objects and functions of the Council, the powers of the Council, the Chief Executive Officer, Corporation Secretary and Staff of the Council, the funds of the Council and the manner of reporting on the operations of the Council.

Part III (Clauses 17-25) provides for the licensing and inspection of warehouses, for the application for a licence to operate within the Warehouse Receipts System, the revocation and suspension of the licence.

Clause 20 provides for the establishment of a Warehouse Receipts Appeals Committee and matters that the Committee may determine and confers powers on the Cabinet Secretary to make regulations on the structure and operation of the Committee.

Clause 21 provides for the grading of agricultural commodities by certified agricultural commodities graders and weighing of agricultural products using equipment calibrated in accordance with the Weights and Measures Act.

Clause 22-24 provides for the inspection of stored products by authorized officers of the Council, the publication of inspection results and the examination of books and records of licensed warehouses and the warehouse operators working the warehouses.

Part IV (Clauses 26-29) provides for the issuance of a warehouse receipt for agricultural produce deposited in a warehouse, the establishment of a Central Registry operated by the Council for the purpose of registering transactions relating to a warehouse receipt issued, the replacement of lost, stolen or destroyed receipts and the status of the duplicate receipts issued.

Part V (Clauses 30-35) provides for the rights and obligations of the warehouse operator on their rights including the liability for loss of goods to persons not lawfully entitled to the goods and the operator's lien over good covered by a warehouse receipt or proceeds of the goods for lawful charges in the storage contract.

Part VI (Clauses 36-40) provides for the negotiation and transfer of receipts, negotiation by endorsement and delivery, the rights acquired by negotiation of warehouse receipts, rights and obligations of transferors and transferees of negotiable warehouse receipts and warranties on negotiations of the warehouse receipts.

Part VII (Clauses 43) contains miscellaneous provision.
