17. (1) The Commissioner shall have the power to cancel a refugee status where—

Cancellation of refugee status.

- (a) a person recognized as a refugee has fraudulently misrepresented or omitted material facts which, if known, could have changed the decision to recognize that person as a refugee; or
- (b) new evidence becomes available that a person should not have been recognised as a refugee.

(2) Before cancelling a refugee status, the Commissioner shall cause a written notice to be served upon the refugee—

- (a) informing him or her of the fact that his or her status as a refugee is to be reconsidered;
- (b) inviting him or her to make written representations to the Commissioner within a period of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice or such longer period as the Department may allow, regarding his or her status as a refugee; and
- (c) inviting him or her to an interview in order to state his or her case with the Department, in person, accompanied by a legal representative or other representative.

(3) The Commissioner shall consider every case notified to a refugee under subsection (2) and may make any inquiry or investigation it thinks necessary into such case.

(4) After considering all the evidence, the Commissioner based on a legal assessment of the case may cancel the recognition of the refugee concerned and notify the person together with reasons for the decision.

(5) A person whose status has been cancelled and does not appeal or has exhausted the available appeal mechanisms, shall leave the country within thirty days, failure to which the Cabinet Secretary shall order his or her immediate removal.

(6) Where refugee status under this part has been cancelled, that person shall cease to be a refugee and any member of his or her family with derivative status shall cease to be so recognised under this Act on the expiration of seven days after notification of cancellation of status by the Commissioner.

Provided that the family member whose derivative status is affected by the cancellation shall have the right to apply to be considered as a refugee under section 12 of this Act.

18. (1) The Commissioner may revoke the status of any refugee if the refugee at any time after recognition as a refugee has committed a war crime or a crime against humanity, as defined in any international instrument to which Kenya is a party.

(2) Where refugee status under this part has been revoked that person shall cease to be a refugee under this refugee status.

Act on the expiration of seven days after the date on which the Commissioner notifies the person concerned that his or her recognition has been revoked.

(4) Where refugee status under this part has been revoked, every person who, immediately before such revocation, was within Kenya as a member of the family of such refugee shall have the right to apply to be considered as a refugee under section 12 of this Act.

(5) Any person whose refugee status has been cancelled or revoked shall leave the country within thirty days of notification of the final order relating to the cancellation or revocation, failing which the Cabinet Secretary shall remove such person immediately.

19. (1) Subject to section 30, the Cabinet Secretary may order the expulsion from Kenya of any refugee or member of his family if the Cabinet Secretary considers the expulsion to be necessary on the grounds of national security or public order.

Expulsion of refugees or members of their families.

(2) Subject to subsection 19(1) a refugee or an asylum seeker engaging in a conduct that is in breach or is likely to result in breach of public order or contrary to public morality irrespective of whether the conduct is linked to his claim for asylum or not, may be expelled from the Kenya by an order of the Cabinet Secretary.

(3) Before ordering the expulsion from Kenya of any refugee or member of his family in terms of subsection (1) of this section, the Cabinet Secretary shall act in accordance with the due process of law.

20. (1) The Commissioner shall ensure that specific measures are taken to ensure the dignity and safety of women and children seeking asylum and women and children who have been granted refugee status at all times during their stay in designated areas.

Refugee women and children.

(2) The Commissioner shall ensure that a child who is in need of refugee status or who is considered a refugee receives appropriate protection and assistance, whether accompanied or not by his parents or any other person.

(3) The Commissioner shall, as far as possible, assist a child referred to in subsection (2) to trace the parents or other members of the family in order to obtain information necessary for the reunification of the child with his or her family.

(4) Where the parents of the child or other members of the child's family cannot be found, the child shall be accorded the same protection as any child permanently or temporarily deprived of his or her family.

21. The Commissioner shall ensure that appropriate measures are taken to ensure the safety of asylum seekers and refugees who suffer from disability and persons or groups of persons who have been traumatized or otherwise require special protection at all times during admission into and stay in Kenya.

Care for persons with disability and persons who have suffered trauma.

22. (1) A person who has applied for recognition as a refugee, and every member of his or her family shall have the right to remain within Kenya—

Right to remain in Kenya during status determination.

- (a) until such person has been recognised as a refugee under that section;
- (b) in the event of the application of such person being unsuccessful, until such person has had an opportunity to exhaust his right of appeal this Act;
- (c) where such person has appealed under section 14, and his or her appeal has been unsuccessful, until such person has been allowed a reasonable time, not exceeding sixty days to seek admission to a country of his or her choice.

(2) The Cabinet Secretary may, on application being made to him or her by the person concerned, extend the three-month period referred to in subsection (1)(c) if he or she is satisfied that there is a reasonable likelihood of the person being admitted to a country of his or her choice within such extended period.

23. (1) A person who has submitted an application for refugee status in accordance with the Act shall be issued with a temporary pass valid for ninety days and it shall be evidence that the person has applied for refugee status in Kenya.

Applicant to be issued with an asylum seeker's pass.

(2) Every member of the family of the applicant shall also be issued with a similar document.

(3) The temporary pass issued under this Act shall entitle the applicant and all the members of his or her family to remain in Kenya—

- (a) until his or her application is granted or rejected and no appeal has been filed with the Appeals Committee; and
- (b) until that person has exhausted his or her right of appeal.

(4) A temporary pass issued under this Act shall be renewed after the expiry of ninety days until all rights connected with or incidental to an application for refugee status have been exhausted.

(5) A person who has submitted an application for refugee status shall be under obligation to abide by all the laws of Kenya including all the lawful orders given by the mandated institutions under this Act, failure to which the Commissioner shall have powers to strike them out of the asylum process and advise the Cabinet Secretary to remove them from Kenya subject to the applicable immigration laws.

PART IV—RECEPTION FOR REFUGEES AND ASYLUM SEEKERS

24. Any person entering Kenya to seek asylum shall make his or her intention known immediately upon entry or within thirty days by reporting to the nearest reception centre or the nearest government administrative office.

Entry into Kenya
by refugees.

25. (1) The Commissioner shall ensure availability of reception officers at designated entry points provided that where there are no designate reception officers, the immigration officers or other government officers stationed at the entry points shall act as reception officers.

Designation of
officers.

(2) If the reception officer who comes into contact with an asylum seeker is not an officer from the Department, the officer shall liaise with the Department for the necessary assistance or guidance.

(3) Subject to subsection (2) asylum seekers may be temporarily accommodated at the reception holding areas as they await further processing by the Department.

(4) Asylum seekers who enter the country through places, other than gazetted entry points, shall immediately report to the nearest government administrative office for further assistance.

26. The duty of a reception officer shall be—

Duty of Reception officers.

- (a) to give applications and guidelines for refugee status to every person who wishes to apply for refugee status at the point of entry;
- (b) to receive all persons who have applied for refugee status or wish to apply for refugee status;
- (c) to take photographs and biometric data of asylum seekers and members of their families;
- (d) to question and search any person or property as he or she may deem necessary and appropriate, and within the law and with strict regard to the dignity and decency of the person in question; and
- (e) to screen asylum seekers so as to ensure that they pose no public health hazard to the local population and to ensure those who may pose such risk are isolated and urgently provided with the necessary medical attention.

27. Any asylum seeker or refugee entering Kenya shall be subjected to security screening in accordance with the provisions of this Act and any other written law for purposes of detecting and containing any person who may pose a danger to the security of Kenya or the safety of the people and to prevent the proliferation of arms and other contraband items.

Security Screening.

PART V—RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF REFUGEES AND ASYLUM SEEKERS IN KENYA

28. (1) Subject to this Act, every refugee and every asylum seeker within Kenya shall be entitled to the rights and be subject—

Rights of and obligations of Refugees.

- (a) to the duties contained in the UN Convention, its Protocol and the OAU Convention; and
- (b) all the laws in force in Kenya.

(2) The Cabinet Secretary may, by notice in the Gazette and in consultation with the relevant county governments, designate specific counties to host refugees.

(3) The Cabinet Secretary may, by notice in the Gazette, designate places and areas in Kenya to be transit centres for purposes of temporarily accommodating refugees.

(4) Subject to this Act, refugees shall be enabled to contribute to the economic and social development of Kenya by facilitating access to, and issuance of, the required documentation at both levels of Government.

29. (1) No person shall be refused entry into Kenya, expelled, extradited from Kenya or returned to any other country or be subjected to any similar measure if, as a result of such refusal, expulsion, return or other measure, such person is compelled to return to or remain in a country where—

Non-Refoulement.

- (a) the person may be subject to persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinion; or
