The Trans Nzoia Investment and Development Corporation Bill, 2019

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill aims to establish the Trans Nzoia Investment and Development Corporation for the purposes of promoting and coordinating investments undertaken by the county government. The Bill will enable the county government to efficiently and effectively invest the properties or assets that it owns or other resources that may commit to investment.

Part I of the Bill provides for the preliminaries. It provides for the purpose of the Bill which includes enhancement of financial and economic prudence in the county government investments, providing efficient and effective instrument of managing county government investments.

Part II of the Bill establishes the Trans Nzoia Investment and Development Corporation as a body corporate. The Corporation is charged with the responsibility for holding property and assets for the purposes of investing on behalf the county, promoting and facilitating investments in the county, undertaking business ventures in the county and to act as a focal agency on matters related to investments in the county. This Part also vests the management of the Corporation to the Board of Directors. It also provides for the administration of the Corporation and imposes a requirement for the Corporation to prepare annual reports in order to enhance accountability.

Part III of the Bill provides for the finances of the Corporation. It stipulates that the finances of the Corporation includes monies appropriated by the county assembly, income generated by the Corporation from projects initiated by it, donations, gifts and grants from lawful sources as well as loans. The Part also provides for borrowing powers by the Corporation and obligates it to maintain accounting and financial records for auditing.

Part IV provides for investment management by the Corporation. It sets out the investment principles to guide the Corporation such as value for money, prudence in financial and investment management, efficiency, economy, competitive approach to business, corporate social responsibility and financial sustainability. This Part also empowers the Board of the Corporation to prepare a strategic corporate investment plan which provides for the profile of investment opportunities in the county, an analysis of the investment opportunities in the county and the region, investment portfolios and the investment environment in the county and the region. It also requires the Corporation to enter into partnerships and collaborations in consultation with the county executive committee.
Part V of the Bill provides for transfer of assets or property by the county government to the Corporation, acquisition of land for purposes of the Corporation, dispute resolution as well as providing for how the Corporation may be wound up. The Part finally also empowers the Executive Committee Member to make regulations for the better implementation of the Bill.

ERICK MUSUMBA,
Chairperson, Trade, Commerce Industry and Co-operative Committee.
