(2) The Director shall keep a register in respect of exporter's or importer's licences issued by him.

(3) The register under this rule shall contain particulars of the licensee's name, the area to which the licence relates and the number of the licence.

38. Retention of books by exporter or importer

Every buyer and exporter or importer shall retain the books kept by him under the Act for a period of not less than five years from the date of the last entry therein, and shall produce such books when called upon to do so by an examiner or inspector.

39. Consignment of hides, skins or leather to persons in Kenya

(1) No hides or leather originating in any place outside Kenya may be consigned to any person in Kenya unless such hides or skins or leather—

- (a) are consigned in transit for export to the ports of Mombasa or Kisumu or the airports of Nairobi or Mombasa; or
- (b) subject paragraph (2) of this rule, are consigned to any person or company in Kenya for the purpose of preserving, processing, pickling, tanning, retaining, or finishing in Kenya either for use in Kenya or for export:

Provided that if any hides or skins or leather so imported are found to be unsuitable for preserving, processing, pickling, tanning, retaining or finishing they may be exported if with prior approval of an inspector they have been marked or punched with the letter "P" on the left fore shank or at any other place to be determined by the inspector.

(2) Any person intending to import hides, skins or leather under the provision of the rule 38(1) of these Rules shall apply in writing to the Director for permission, giving full details of the hides and skins or leather he intends to import and stating their country of origin.

(3) The Director may, if he considers such importation undesirable having regard to animal health or leather and leather-goods manufacturer's requirements, refuse to grant such permission.

(4) All such imported hides, skins or leather shall be inspected by an inspector or examiner at the port of entry who, if satisfied as to the accuracy of the description of the goods, shall sign and stamp the document describing the goods and issue a dispatch note in the form prescribed in the Twelfth Schedule.

40. Inspection of consignment of, skin or leather

(1) Every importer of hides or skins or leather to be inspected by an inspector or examiner and shall provide information in the form prescribed in the Nineteenth Schedule to these Rules.

(2) The inspector or examiner shall, if he is satisfied with the information provided, stamp and initial the certificate unless—

- (i) the bales, pallets or bundles are not clearly labelled with the shipper marks; or
- (ii) the leather is not correctly classified either as wet blue chrome tanned, chrome tanned crust, vegetable tanned crust, dyed or finished; or
- (iii) any cess or import tax payable under any law for the time being in force has not been paid; or
- (iv) any other such condition as the Director may from time to time specify in a Gazette notice has been satisfied.

41. Penalties

Any person found guilty of an offence under these Rules shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.
