3. (1) A power to postpone sale shall, in the case of every trust for sale of land, be implied unless a contrary intention appears.

Power to postpone sale.

(2) Where there is a power to postpone the sale, then (subject to any express direction to the contrary in the instrument, if any, creating the trust for sale) the trustees for sale shall not be liable in any way for postponing the sale, in the exercise of their discretion, for any indefinite period; nor shall a purchaser be concerned in any case with any directions respecting the postponement of a sale.

(3) The foregoing provisions of this section apply whether the trust for sale is created before or after the commencement or by virtue of this Ordinance.

(4) Where a disposition or settlement coming into operation after the commencement of this Ordinance contains a trust either to retain or to sell land the same shall be construed as a trust to sell the land with power to postpone the sale.

Duration of trusts for sale.

4. (1) Where land has, either before or after the commencement or by virtue of this Ordinance, become subject to an express or implied or statutory trust for sale, such trust shall, so far as regards the safety and protection of any purchaser thereunder, be deemed to be subsisting until the land has been conveyed to or under the direction of the persons interested in the proceeds of sale.

(2) This section applies to sales whether made before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, but operates without prejudice to an order of any court restraining a sale.

Appointment of new trustees for sale of land.

5. (1) The persons having power to appoint new trustees of land held upon trust for sale shall be bound to appoint the same persons (if any) who are for the time being trustees of the settlement of the proceeds of sale, but a purchaser shall not be concerned to see whether the proper persons are appointed to be trustees of such land.

(2) This section applies whether the trust for sale or the settlement of the proceeds of sale comes into operation before or after the commencement or by virtue of this Ordinance.

Consents to the execution of a trust for sale.

6. (1) If the consent of more than two persons is by the disposition made requisite to the execution of a trust for sale of land, then, in favour of a purchaser, the consent of any two of such persons to the execution of the trust or to the exercise of any statutory or other powers vested in the trustees for sale shall be deemed sufficient.

(2) Where the person whose consent to the execution of any such trust or power is expressed to be required in a disposition is not sui juris or becomes subject to disability, his consent shall not, in favour of a purchaser, be deemed to be requisite to the execution of the trust or the exercise of the power; but the trustees shall, in any such case, obtain the separate consent of the parental or testamentary or other guardian of an infant or of the person (if any) legally entrusted with the custody or curatorship of the property and affairs of a lunatic.

(3) The trustees for sale shall, as far as practicable, give effect to the wishes of the persons of full age for the time being beneficially interested in possession in the rents and profits of the land until sale, or, in case of dispute, of the majority (according to the value of their combined interests) of such persons, but a purchaser shall not be concerned to see that such wishes are complied with.

7. (1) A purchaser of land from trustees for sale shall not be concerned with the trusts affecting the proceeds of sale of such land (whether made to attach to such proceeds by virtue of this Ordinance or otherwise), or affecting the rents and profits of such land until sale, whether or not those trusts are declared by the same instrument by or which, or by any instrument consequent upon which, the trust for sale is created.

Purchaser not concerned with trusts of proceeds of sale if paid to two or more trustees or to a trust corporation.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the instrument (if any) by or consequent upon which a trust for sale of land is created or in the settlement of the net proceeds, the proceeds of sale or other capital money shall not be paid to or applied by the direction of fewer than two persons as trustees for sale, except where the trustee is a trust corporation, but this sub-section does not affect the right of a sole personal representative as such to give valid receipts for, or direct the application of, proceeds of sale or other capital money, nor, except where capital money arises on the transaction, render it necessary to have more than one trustee.

PART II

IMPLIED TRUSTS FOR SALE

8. (1) Where any land, vested in trustees by way of security, becomes, by virtue of any Ordinance relating to limitation of suits, or of an order for foreclosure, or of a purchase from or release by the person for the time being having the right of redemption, or otherwise, discharged from the right of redemption, it shall be held by them upon trust for sale.

Trust for sale of mortgaged property where right of redemption is barred.

(2) The net proceeds of sale, after payment of costs and expenses, shall be applied in like manner as the mortgage debt, if received, would have been applicable, and the income of the property until sale shall be applied in like manner as the interest, if received, would have been applicable; but this sub-section operates without prejudice to any rule of law relating to the apportionment of capital and income between tenant for life and remainderman.

(3) This section does not affect the right of any person to require that, instead of a sale, the property shall be conveyed to him or in accordance with his directions.

(4) This section applies whether the right of redemption was discharged before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, but has effect without prejudice to any dealings or arrangements made before such commencement.

Trust for sale
of movables.

9. (1) Where a settlement of movable property or of land held upon trust for sale contains a power, or where the trustees of any such settlement are empowered by law, to invest money in the purchase of land, such land shall be held by the trustees upon trust for sale; and the net rents and profits until sale, after keeping down costs of repairs and insurance and other outgoings, shall be paid or applied in like manner as the income of investments representing the purchase-money would be payable or applicable if a sale had been made and the proceeds had been duly invested in movable property.

(2) This section applies to all settlements (including wills) whether created before or after the commencement of this Ordinance.

PART III

STATUTORY TRUSTS FOR SALE

What constitutes settled land.

10. Any land which, at the commencement of this Ordinance, stands, or which, after the commencement of this Ordinance, under or by virtue of any deed, will, agreement, Ordinance, or other instrument, or any number of instruments, is or becomes, or purports to be or become—

- (i) limited to or in trust for any persons by way of succession; or
- (ii) limited to or in trust for any person in possession for any estate or interest subject to a limitation, gift, or disposition over on failure of his issue or in any other event; or

- (iii) limited to or in trust for any person for any estate contingent on the happening of any event; or
- (iv) limited to or in trust of any person under the age of majority for any estate; or
- (v) limited to or in trust for a married woman of the age of majority in possession for any estate with a restraint on anticipation; or
- (vi) charged, whether voluntarily or in consideration of marriage or by way of family arrangement, and whether immediately or after an interval, with the payment of any rent charge for the life of any person, or any less period, or of any capital, annual, or periodical sums for the portions, advancement, maintenance, or otherwise for the benefit of any persons, with or without any term of years for securing or raising the same, shall be deemed to be settled land for the purposes of this Ordinance and the deed, will, agreement, Ordinance, or other instrument or instruments (whether made or passed before or after, or partly before and partly after, the commencement of this Ordinance) under or by virtue of which the same stands or is or becomes or purports to be or become so limited or charged is in this Ordinance referred to as a settlement, or as the settlement, as the same requires.

11. (1) Where, at the commencement of this Ordinance, settled land is vested either wholly or partially in any trustee or trustees for all or any of the purposes of the settlement, the same shall, as from the commencement of this Ordinance, vest solely in such trustee or trustees to the exclusion of all others (if not already so vested) and be held by him or them upon trust for sale.

Transitional provisions converting settlements into trusts for sale.

(2) Where, at the commencement of this Ordinance, settled land stands vested in any person or persons solely as beneficiary or beneficiaries under or by virtue of the settlement, and not in any collateral capacity as trustee or trustees for the purposes of the settlement, the same shall, as from the commencement of this Ordinance, vest solely and absolutely in the person, or in all the persons if more than one, being of the age of majority and having any beneficial interest, whether in possession or in remainder or expectant or contingent, and not being subject to a restraint on anticipation, under or by virtue of the settlement, to the exclusion of all others (if not already so vested) and be held by him or them upon trust for sale.

Attempted settlement constitutes trust for sale.

12. (1) Where, by any settlement first taking effect or purporting to take effect after the commencement of this Ordinance, the settled land the subject thereof becomes vested or held, or would but for the provisions of this Ordinance become vested or held, either wholly or partially in or by any trustee or trustees for all or any of the purposes of the settlement, such settled land shall thereupon and thereby vest solely in such trustee or trustees to the exclusion of all others (if not already so vested) and be held by him or them upon trust for sale.

(2) Where, by any settlement first taking effect or purporting to take effect after the commencement of this Ordinance, the settled land the subject thereof becomes vested or held, or would but for the provisions of this Ordinance become vested or held, in or by any person or persons solely as beneficiary or beneficiaries under or by virtue of such settlement, and not in any collateral capacity as trustee or trustees for the purposes of such settlement, such settled land shall thereupon and thereby vest solely and absolutely in the person, or in all the persons if more than one, being of the age of majority and having any beneficial interest, whether in possession or in remainder or expectant or contingent, and not being subject to a restraint on anticipation, under or by virtue of such settlement, to the exclusion of all others (if not already so vested) and be held by him or them upon trust for sale.

Infants cannot hold settled lands.

13. (1) Where, at the commencement of this Ordinance, settled land stands vested solely in one or more persons who is or all of whom either are under the age of majority or, being of the age of majority, hold subject to a restraint on anticipation, the same shall, as from the commencement of this Ordinance, vest solely and absolutely in the Public Trustee and be held by him upon trust for sale.

(2) Where, by any settlement first taking effect or purporting to take effect after the commencement of this Ordinance, the settled land the subject thereof would but for the provisions of this Ordinance become vested solely in one or more persons who is or all of whom either are, at the time of such taking effect or purported taking effect, under the age of majority or, being of the age of majority, would hold subject to a restraint on anticipation, such settlement shall not operate in any wise to transfer such settled land, but shall take effect merely as an agreement binding all the parties who are bound by such settlement forthwith to convey, assign or otherwise transfer such settled land to two or more persons of the age of majority upon trust for sale.

14. The net rents and profits until sale of any settled land in respect of which a trust for sale is constituted by any of the provisions of this Part, after keeping down costs of repairs and other outgoings, shall be paid or applied in like manner as the same would for the time being have been paid or applied if no such trust for sale had been constituted and all the provisions of the settlement had been permitted to take effect.

Application of rents and profits pending exercise of statutory trust for sale.

15. (1) Capital money arising under this Ordinance by exercise of a trust for sale constituted in respect of settled land by any of the provisions of this Part, while remaining uninvested or unapplied, and securities on which an investment of any such capital money is made shall for all purposes of disposition, transmission and devolution be treated as land, and shall be held for and go to the same persons successively, in the same manner and for and on the same estates, interests, and trusts, as the land wherefrom the money arises, would have been held and have gone under the settlement if such settled land had not been disposed of and all the provisions of the settlement had been permitted to take effect.

Devolution of proceeds of statutory trust for sale and income therefrom.

(2) The income of those securities shall be paid or applied as the income of that land, if not disposed of, would have been payable or applicable under the settlement.

16. (1) The provisions of this Part apply to all settled land, and to every settlement whether made or arising before or after the commencement of this Ordinance.

Extent of application of this Part.

(2) In case of conflict between the provisions of a settlement and the provisions of this Part or of this Ordinance generally relative to any vesting of the settled land the subject thereof, or to any matter in respect whereof the person or persons in whom for the time being such settled land is vested upon trust for sale under or pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance exercises or contracts or intends to exercise any power as such under this Ordinance, the provisions of this Part or of this Ordinance generally (as the case may be) shall prevail; and, notwithstanding anything in the settlement, any power (not being merely a power of revocation or appointment) relating to the settled land thereby conferred upon any beneficiary or beneficiaries under the settlement or other persons exercisable for any purpose, whether or not provided for in this Ordinance, shall, after the commencement of this Ordinance, be exercisable by the person or persons in whom for the time being such settled land is vested upon trust for sale as aforesaid, as if it were an additional power conferred on such person or persons and not otherwise.

(2) A sale of land may be made subject to a stipulation that all or any of the timber and other trees, underwood, saplings, and plantations on the land sold or any articles attached to the land shall be taken by the purchaser at a valuation, and the amount of the valuation shall form part of the price of the land, and shall be capital money accordingly.

Separate dealing with surface and minerals.

21. A sale, exchange, lease or other authorized disposition, may (in such manner and so far as the law permits) be made either of land, with or without an exception or reservation of all or any of the mines and minerals therein, or of any mines and minerals and in any such case with or without a grant or reservation of powers of working, wayleaves or rights of way, rights of water and drainage, and other powers, easements, rights, and privileges for or incident to or connected

22. (1) Trustees for sale of land may at any time, either with or without consideration, grant by writing an option to purchase or take a lease of such land, or any part thereof, or any easement, right, or privilege over or in relation to the same at a price or rent either fixed at the time of granting the option, or to be fixed at or before exercise of the option in some manner prescribed at the time of granting the option.

(5) The consideration for the grant of the option shall be deemed to be capital money arising by exercise of the trust for sale.

23. (1) Trustees for sale of land may accept, with or without consideration, a surrender of any lease of such land, whether made under this Ordinance or not, or a regrant of any land granted in fee simple, whether under this Ordinance or not, in respect of the whole land leased or granted, or any part thereof, with or without an exception of all or any of the mines or minerals therein, or in respect of mines and minerals, or any of them, and with or without an exception of any easement, right, or privilege of any kind over or in relation to the land surrendered or regranted.

Surrenders and regrants.

(2) On a surrender of a lease or a regrant of land granted in fee simple in respect of part only of the land or mines and minerals leased or granted the rent or rent charge may be apportioned.

(3) On a surrender or regrant, the trustees for sale may in relation to the land or mines and minerals surrendered or regranted, or of any part thereof, make a new or other lease, or grant in fee simple, or new or other leases, or grants in fee simple, in lots.

(4) A new or other lease, or grant in fee simple, may comprise additional land or mines and minerals, and may reserve any apportioned or other rent, or rent charge.

(5) On a surrender or regrant, and the making of a new or other lease, whether for the same or for any extended or other term, or of a new or other grant in fee simple, and whether or not subject to the same or to any other covenants, provisions, or conditions, the value of the lessee's or grantee's interest in the lease surrendered, or the land regranted, may be taken into account in the determination of the amount of the rent or rent charge to be reserved, and of any fine or consideration in money to be taken, and of the nature of the covenants, provisions, and conditions to be inserted in the new or other lease, or grant in fee simple.

(6) Every new or other lease, or grant in fee simple, shall be in conformity with this Ordinance.

(7) All money, not being rent, or a rent charge, received on the exercise by the trustees for sale of the powers conferred by this section, shall, unless the Court, on an application made within six months after the receipt thereof or within such further time as the court may in special circumstances allow, otherwise directs, be deemed to be capital money arising by exercise of the trust for sale.

(8) In this section "land granted in fee simple" means land so granted with or subject to a reservation thereof of a perpetual or terminable rent charge which is or forms part of the land held upon trust for sale, and "grant in fee simple" has a corresponding meaning.

Acceptance of leases.

24. (1) Trustees for sale of land may accept a lease of any land, or of any mines and minerals, or of any easement, right, or privilege, convenient to be held or worked with or annexed in enjoyment to the land held upon trust for sale, or any part thereof, for such period and upon such terms and conditions, as the trustees for sale think fit:

26. Trustees for sale of land may at any time, by deed or writing, either with or without consideration in money or otherwise, vary, release, waive, or modify, either absolutely or otherwise, the terms of any lease whenever made of the land held upon trust for sale or any part thereof or any covenants or conditions contained in any grant in fee simple whenever made of land with or subject to a reservation thereof of a rent which is or forms part of the land held upon trust for sale, and in either case in respect of the whole or any part of the land comprised in any such lease or grant but so that every such lease or grant shall, after such variation, release, waiver or modification as aforesaid, be such a lease or grant as might then have been lawfully made under this Ordinance if the lease had been surrendered or the land comprised in the grant had never been so comprised or had been regranted.

Power to vary leases and give licences and consents.

27. (1) Trustees for sale of land may at any time, by deed or writing, either with or without consideration in money or otherwise, agree for the apportionment of any rent reserved or created by any such lease or grant as mentioned in the last preceding section, or any rent being or forming part of the land held upon trust for sale, so that the apportioned parts of such rent shall thenceforth be payable exclusively out of or in respect of such respective portions of the land subject thereto as may be thought proper, and also agree that any covenants, agreements, powers, or remedies for securing such rent and any other covenants or agreements by

Power to apportion rents.

(3) This section applies to leases or grants made either before or after the commencement of this Ordinance.
