- (c) discloses, except for the purposes of this Act or when required to do so as a witness in a court of law or with the approval of the Director, information acquired by him in the performance of his duties relating to a person, firm or business of any kind; or
- (d) uses his position to improperly enrich himself or others, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine not exceeding one million shillings or both and any money, property or reward obtained fraudulently or any property acquired using money obtained fraudulently shall be forfeited to the Government.

(12) A person who, with the intention of defrauding the Bureau-

- (a) directly or indirectly offers to give an inspector a payment or reward, whether pecuniary or otherwise, or makes a promise or security for any such payment or reward; or
- (b) promises or enters into an agreement with an inspector in order to induce him to do, abstain from doing, permit, conceal or connive at, any act whereby the Bureau may be defrauded, or which is contrary to the provisions of this Act for the proper execution of the duty of that inspector, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment as prescribed under subsection (11).

Conditional release

14B(1) An inspector may order the conditional release of goods to a manufacturer, importer, possessor, dealer or seller or his agent pending the testing of the samples of goods to determine whether they comply with the relevant Kenya Standard.

(2) Where the goods are in the custody and possession of the manufacturer, importer, dealer seller or his agent, an inspector may require and order the manufacturer, importer, dealer, seller or agent to retain possession of the goods pending the testing of samples and release of the test results.

(3) Where the goods are released under subsection (1) or retained under subsection (2), the inspector shall ensure that the samples are tested and the results thereof released to the manufacturer, importer, possessor, dealer, seller or agent within fourteen days after the testing period of such samples.

(4) Where the goods are found to comply with the relevant Kenya Standard, they shall be released to the manufacturer, importer, possessor, dealer or seller forthwith.

(5) Where the goods fail to comply with the relevant Kenya Standard, they shall be destroyed in accordance with Section 14A.

(6) Any person who removes, sells, uses, disposes off, re-exports, damages, wastes, destroys or in any manner deals with the goods specified in subsection (2) before the release of the results shall be guilty of an offence.

(7) Goods of a perishable nature shall not be subject to conditional release
