(1) County governments shall hold in trust all unregistered community land on behalf of the communities for which it is held.

(2) The respective county government shall hold in trust for a community any monies payable as compensation for compulsory acquisition of any unregistered community land.

(3) Upon registration of community land, the respective county government shall promptly release to the community all such monies payable for compulsory acquisition.

(4) Any such monies shall be deposited in a special interest earning account by the county government.

(5) The respective county government shall transfer the amount and the interests earned to the communities as may be prescribed.

(6) Any transaction in relation to unregistered community land within the county shall be in accordance with the provisions of this Act and any other applicable law.

(7) Upon the registration of any unregistered community land in accordance with this Act, the respective registered community shall, assume the management and administrative functions provided in this Act and the trustee role of the respective county government in relation to the land shall cease.

(8) A county government shall not sell, dispose, transfer, convert for private purposes or in any other way dispose of any unregistered community land that it is holding in trust on behalf of the communities for which it is held.

7. Procedure for registration of communities

(1) A community claiming an interest in or right over community land shall be registered in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) The community land registrar shall by notice in at least one newspaper of nationwide circulation and a radio station of nationwide coverage, invite all members of the community with some communal interest to a public meeting for the purpose of electing the members of the community land management committee.

(3) The notice shall also be given to the national county administrators and county government administrators in the area where the community land is located.

(4) The community land registrar may use all available means of communication including electronic media to reach the community members.

(5) The community shall elect between seven and fifteen members from among themselves to be the members of the community land management committee as provided in section 15, who shall come up with a comprehensive register of communal interest holders.

(6) The community land management committee shall come up with the name of the community and shall submit the name, register of members, minutes of the meeting and the rules and regulations of the committee to the Registrar for registration.

8. Procedure for recognition and adjudication of community land

(1) Subject to this Act and any law relating to adjudication of titles to land, the Cabinet Secretary shall, in consultation with the respective county governments, develop and publish in the Gazette a comprehensive adjudication programme for purposes of registration of community land.

(2) The Cabinet Secretary shall, in consultation with the county governments ensure that the process of documenting, mapping and developing of the inventory of community land shall be transparent, cost effective and participatory.

(3) The inventory of community land referred to in subsection (2) may be accessed by the county governments for ease of access by members of the community.

(4) The Cabinet Secretary shall issue a public notice of intention to survey, demarcate and register community land.

(5) The notice shall—

- (a) contain the name of the community;
- (b) state which land is to be adjudicated;

- (c) invite all interested persons with overriding interests or any other claim on the land, to lodge their claims;
- (d) specify an area or areas of land to be a community land registration unit; and
- (e) be for a period of sixty days.

(6) The Cabinet Secretary shall cause the land to be adequately surveyed but such survey shall exclude—

- (a) all parcels already in use for public purposes; and
- (b) adjudicated private land.

(7) A cadastral map of the land shall then be produced and presented to the Registrar for registration.

9. Community land Registrar

The Chief Land Registrar shall designate a qualified registrar to be the community land Registrar responsible for registration of community land.

10. Register of community land

(1) There shall be maintained for each registration unit, a community land register in accordance with section 8 of the Land Registration Act, 2012 (No. 3 of 2012) in which shall contain—

- (a) a cadastral map showing the extent of the community land and identified areas of common interest;
- (b) the name of the registered community;
- (c) a register of members of the registered community which shall be updated annually;
- (d) the user of the land;
- (e) such particulars of members of the registered community as the Registrar may determine; and
- (f) any other requirement under this Act.

(2) The Registrar shall not register any instrument purporting to dispose of rights or interest in community land except in accordance with this Act or any other written law.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, until any parcel of community land has been registered in accordance with this Act, such land shall remain unregistered community land and shall, subject to this Act, be held in trust by the county governments on behalf of the communities for which it is held pursuant to Article 63(3) of the Constitution.

11. Registration of community land

(1) Community land shall be registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the Land Registration Act, 2012 (No. 3 of 2012).

(2) The Cabinet Secretary shall by a notice in the gazette, appoint an adjudication officer in respect of every community registration unit who shall—

- (a) facilitate in consultation with the respective county governments the adjudication of the community land including the recording of community land claims, demarcation of community land and delineation of boundaries; and

Private land may be converted to community land by—

- (a) transfer; or
- (b) surrender;
- (c) operation of the law in relation to illegally acquired community land; or
- (d) operation of any other written law.

26. Setting aside community land for public purposes

(1) A community may set aside part of the registered community land for public purposes.

(2) Where land is set aside for public purposes under subsection (1), the Commission shall gazette such parcel of land as public land.

PART VI – SPECIAL RIGHTS AND ENTITLEMENTS IN THE COMMUNITY LAND

27. Individual rights on community land

(1) A registered community may upon application and with approval of the members of the registered community, allocate part of its registered community land to a member or a group of members of the community for exclusive use and occupation for such period as the registered community shall determine.

(2) Despite subsection (1), a separate title shall not be issued for such parcel.

(3) An individual entitlement under subsection (1) shall not be superior to community title in any way.

(4) A member granted exclusive use of a parcel of land under this section—

- (a) shall pay to the registered community such premium or fees commensurate to the use as may be determined by the community from time to time;
- (b) may develop the land subject to the provisions of any laws and regulations relating to land use;
- (c) may not assign or lease the land to a third party who is not a member of the community;
- (d) shall put the land into lawful use;
- (e) shall surrender the land back to the community if the member no longer shall be entitled to quiet enjoyment of the land, requires the land; and

28. Grazing rights

(1) The customs and practices of pastoral communities relating to land shall be taken into consideration by a registered community as long as they are consistent with the provisions of this Act or other applicable law.

(2) Community land in a pastoral community shall be available for use by members of the community for the grazing of their livestock, subject to —

- (a) such conditions as the respective registered community may impose, including conditions relating to—
 - (i) the kind and number of livestock that may be grazed;
 - (ii) the section or sections of the land where livestock may be grazed and the grazing in rotation on different sections; and
 - (iii) a grazing plan;
 - (iv) the right of the community to utilize the portion of land in accordance with this Act.

(3) The registered community may upon application by any person who is not a member of the registered community, grant grazing rights and upon such grant, that person shall exercise the rights subject to the conditions referred to in subsection (1):

Provided that the registered community shall subject to the approval of the members of the registered community in a meeting convened for that purpose withdraw a grazing right granted under this subsection if, due to drought or any other reasonable cause, the registered community considers such cancellation to be in the interest of the residents of the community concerned.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a registered community may withdraw the grazing right of any member who—

- (a) fails to observe in a material respect any condition referred to in this Act; or
- (b) contravenes any provision of subsection (2).

(5) A person shall not, except with the written authority of the registered community—

- (a) erect or occupy any building or other structure on the designated grazing land;
- (b) plough or cultivate any portion of the land;
- (c) take up abode on or occupy any portion of the grazing land; and

- (d) obstruct the access to any watering place on the land, prevent or attempt to prevent any person from drawing water from, or watering stock at a watering place, pollute the water at a watering place or interfere with the operation of any windmill, water-pump, water-pipe, dam or storage tank or other appurtenance installed or constructed at such a watering place.

(6) A person who contravenes subsection (5) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months.

29. Designation of other land use rights in community land

(1) A registered community may reserve special purpose areas including—

- (a) farming areas;
- (b) settlement areas;
- (c) community conservation areas;
- (d) access and rights of way;
- (e) cultural and religious sites;
- (f) urban development; or
- (g) any other purpose as may be determined by the community, county government or national government for the promotion of public interest.

(2) An area designated for special purposes under subsection (1) shall be used exclusively for the designated purposes.

30. Non-discrimination

(1) Every member of the community has the right to equal benefit from community land.

(2) Equality includes full and equal enjoyment of rights of use and access.

(3) Women, men, youth, minority, persons with disabilities and marginalized groups have the right to equal treatment in all dealings in community land.

(4) A registered community shall not directly or indirectly discriminate against any member of the community on any ground including race, gender, marital status, ethnic or social origin, colour, age, disability, religion or culture.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, every man or woman married to a member of the community shall gain automatic membership of the community and such membership shall subsist until the spouses legally divorce and the woman remarries or the woman remarries after the death of a spouse.

(6) Subject to Article 159 of the Constitution, the culture of each community shall be recognized in accordance with Article 11(1) of the Constitution in the exercise of community land rights.

31. Transactions in community land

(1) Subject to such exemptions as may be prescribed, or unless any condition attaching to a community land right or a right of leasehold under this Act provides otherwise, a customary land right may be dealt with only with the approval of the registered community in a meeting convened for such purpose.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, contracts and transfers over community land shall be carried out in a manner similar to transactions over private land as provided in the Land Act, 2012 (No. 6 of 2012) and registered as provided in the Land Registration Act, 2012 (No. 3 of 2012).

32. Leases over community land

(1) A lease over community land shall be on the basis of an agreement between the community and the lessee and subject to such implied conditions, restrictions and covenants as may be contained in any other written law.

(2) Despite section 55 (1) of the Land Act, 2012 (No. 6 of 2012) unless the agreement contemplated under subsection (1) otherwise provides, the general provisions on leases contained in Part IV of that Act shall apply to leases over community land.

33. Cancellation of rights of leasehold

In addition to such grounds of cancellation as may be set out in a deed of leasehold, a right of leasehold may be cancelled by a registered community, with approval of the members of the registered community, if the leaseholder fails to comply with the requirements or to adhere to any restrictions imposed by or under any law pertaining to the utilization of the land to which the right relates.

34. Existing rights to use and occupy community land

(1) Any person who immediately before the commencement of this Act, held a right to use and occupy any part of community land, whether by virtue of any authority granted under any law or otherwise than under a lease, may continue to use and occupy such land under that right, subject to the same terms and conditions until the lease expires, after which the provisions of sections 28 and 29 shall apply.

(2) Any conversion which commenced before the promulgation of the Constitution shall be deemed to have commenced under this Act, while any conversion commenced after the promulgation of the Constitution shall be null and void.

PART VII – ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

35. Natural resources on community land

Subject to any other law, natural resources found in community land shall be used and managed—

- (a) sustainably and productively;
- (b) for the benefit of the whole community including future generations;
- (c) with transparency and accountability; and
- (d) on the basis of equitable sharing of accruing benefits.

36. Benefit sharing

(1) Subject to any other relevant written law, an agreement relating to investment in community land shall be made after a free, open consultative process and shall contain provisions on the following aspects—

- (a) an environmental, social, cultural and economic impact assessment;
- (b) stakeholder consultations and involvement of the community;
- (c) continuous monitoring and evaluation of the impact of the investment to the community;
- (d) payment of compensation and royalties;

- (e) requirement to re-habilitate the land upon completion or abandonment of the project;
- (f) measures to be put in place to mitigate any negative effects of the investment;
- (g) capacity building of the community and transfer technology to the community; and
- (h) any other matters necessary for determining how local communities will benefit from investments in their land.

(2) An agreement relating to investment in community land shall only be made between the investor and the community.

(3) No agreement between an investor and the community shall be valid unless it is approved by two thirds of adult members at a community assembly meeting called to consider the offer and at which a quorum of two thirds of the adult members of that community is represented.

(4) The community may request the guidance and assistance of the county government or any other relevant stakeholders in considering the offer of investment.

37. Rules and by-laws

Subject to this Act and any other written law, a registered community may make rules or by-laws for regulating the management and administration of their land and such rules or by-laws may provide for—

- (a) the regulation of investments on the land;
- (b) the determination of terms of any leases granted for purposes of investment;
- (c) the conservation and rehabilitation of the land;
- (d) land use and physical planning; and
- (e) any other relevant matter.

38. Regulation of community land use planning

(1) Pursuant to Article 66 of the Constitution, the State shall have the power to regulate the use of any land, or interest in or right over land, in the interest of defence, public safety, public order, public morality, public health or land use planning.

(2) Despite the provisions of Part 1 and pursuant to section 22 of the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution, the management of community land shall be subject to national and county government laws and policies relating to—

- (a) fishing, hunting and gathering;
- (b) protection of animals and wildlife;
- (c) water protection, securing sufficient residual water, hydraulic engineering and safety of dams;
- (d) forestry;
- (e) environmental laws;
- (f) energy policy; and
- (g) exploitation of minerals and natural resources.

PART VIII – SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES
RELATING TO COMMUNITY LAND

39. Dispute resolution mechanisms

(1) A registered community may use alternative methods of dispute resolution mechanisms including traditional dispute and conflict resolution mechanisms where it is appropriate to do so, for purposes of settling disputes and conflicts involving community land.

(2) Any dispute arising between members of a registered community, a registered community and another registered community shall, at first instance, be resolved using any of the internal dispute resolution mechanisms set out in the respective community by-laws.

(3) Where a dispute or conflict relating to community land arises, the registered community shall give priority to alternative methods of dispute resolution.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution and of this Act, a court or any other dispute resolution body shall apply the customary law prevailing in the area of jurisdiction of the parties to a dispute or binding on the parties to a dispute in settlement of community land disputes so far as it is not repugnant to justice and morality and inconsistent with the Constitution.

40. Mediation

(1) Where a dispute relating to community land arises, the parties to the dispute may agree to refer the dispute to mediation.

(2) The mediation shall take place in private or in informal setting where the parties participate in the negotiation and design the format of the settlement agreement.

(3) The mediator shall have the power to bring together persons to a dispute and settle the dispute by—

- (a) convening meetings for the hearing of disputes from parties and keep record of the proceedings;
- (b) establishing ground rules for the conduct of parties; structuring and managing the negotiation process and helping to clarify the facts and issues; and
- (c) helping the parties to resolve their dispute.

(4) If an agreement is reached during the mediation process, the agreement shall be reduced into writing and signed by the parties at the conclusion of the mediation.

41. Arbitration

(1) Where a dispute relating to community land arises, the parties to the dispute may agree to refer the dispute to arbitration.

(2) Where the parties to an arbitration agreement fail to agree on the appointment of an arbitrator or arbitrators, the provisions of the Arbitration Act (No. 4 of 1995) relating to the appointment of arbitrators shall apply.

42. Judicial proceedings

(1) Where all efforts of resolving a dispute under this Act fail, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to court.

(2) The Court may—

- (a) confirm, set aside, amend or review the decision which is the subject of the appeal; or
- (b) make any order in connection therewith as it may deem fit.
