These Rules may be cited as the Trade Marks (International Registration) Rules.

2. Definitions

In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

“applicable treaty” means whichever between the Madrid Agreement or the Madrid Protocol which applies to the registration;

“international registration” means registration with the International Bureau under the Madrid Agreement or the Madrid Protocol.

“Trade Marks Rules” means the rules of that name made under the Act.

3. Forms

The forms set out in the First Schedule shall be the prescribed forms for the purposes of these Rules.

4. Fees

The prescribed fees for purposes of these Rules shall be as set out in the Second Schedule.

5. Institute to be office for Kenya

The Institute shall be the office for Kenya for the purpose of the Madrid Agreement and the Madrid Protocol and, in carrying out that function, the Institute shall comply with the Madrid Agreement and the Madrid Protocol and the regulations made under those treaties.

PART II – APPLICATION IN KENYA FOR INTERNATIONAL REGISTRATION*6. Application

(1) A person who is a proprietor of a registered trade mark, or who has applied for the registration of a trade mark, may file an application for international registration of the trade mark with the Institute if, under the applicable treaty, the person is entitled to do so.

(2) An application under subrule (1) shall be made in accordance with the applicable treaty and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee payable to the Institute and the applicable fees under the applicable treaty.

7. Examination and forwarding by Institute

(1) The Institute shall examine the application for international registration and, if it complies with the requirements under the applicable treaty, forward the application together with the applicable fees, if any, to the International Bureau.

(2) The expenses incurred by the Institute in forwarding the application to the International Bureau shall be met by the applicant.

PART III – INTERNATIONAL APPLICATIONS DESIGNATING KENYA*8. Application of Part

This Part shall apply with respect to an application for international registration of a trade mark that requests the extension of protection to Kenya.

[Subsidiary]9. Initial examination

Upon being notified of an application by the International Bureau, the Institute shall examine the application and either—

- (a) notify the International Bureau that protection for the trade mark is refused if there are grounds for doing so under the applicable treaty; or
- (b) advertise the application in accordance with the Trade Mark Rules.

10. Applicant's rights on refusal after initial examination

(1) If the Institute notifies the International Bureau, under rule 8(a), that protection for the trade mark is refused the applicant shall have the same remedies under the Trade Marks Rules as he would have if the application was an application thereunder made directly to the Institute.

(2) If, as a result of the applicant pursuing his remedies under subrule (1), the refusal is withdrawn, the Institute shall advertise the application under rule 9(b).

11. Opposition

(1) Any person may, within sixty days of the advertisement of an application under rule 9 (b), give notice to the Registrar of opposition to the intended registration.

(2) The Registrar shall, upon receiving a notice of opposition under this Rule, give notice of the same to the International Bureau, indicating the main grounds contained therein.

(3) The provisions of the Trade Marks Rules shall, with necessary modifications, apply to a notice served under this rule.

(4) If it is determined, based on grounds under the applicable treaty, that the trade mark should be refused protection, the Institute shall notify the International Bureau that protection for the trade mark is refused.

12. Refusal to be in accordance with treaty, etc.

In refusing protection for a trade mark under rule 8(a) or 10(3), the Institute shall act in accordance with the applicable treaty and the regulations under that treaty.

13. Partial refusal

If protection is refused with respect to some, but not all, of the goods or services for which protection is sought, this Part shall apply, with necessary modifications, as though there were two applications, one with respect to the goods or services for which protection was refused and one with respect to the goods or services for which protection was refused.

14. Supplementary Register

(1) The Registrar shall maintain a Register to be known as the Supplementary Register (International) for the purpose of recording, all international trade marks registered under these Rules together with the names and addresses of their proprietors.

(2) Subrule (1) does not apply if protection for the trade mark is refused under rule 8(a) or 10 (3) or, if protection is refused with respect to some, but not all, of the goods or services to which the trade mark relates, subrule (1) does not apply with respect to those goods or services.

20. Continuation of unfinished proceedings

If an application for a transformation is made in the circumstances described in paragraph (b) or (c) of rule 13(1), the application to transform the international registration shall be dealt with under the Trade Marks Rules as though it were an application under those Rules subject to the following—
