86. The Income Tax Act is amended by inserting the following new section immediately after section 39 -

Set-off of import duty.

Cap. 472.

39A. (1) An amount of import duty which has been paid under section 117 of the Customs and Excise Act in respect of capital goods, qualifying for wear and tear deductions under Part II of the Second Schedule (excluding passenger cars) imported with the prior approval of the Minister, for private investment in a project the cost of which is not less than 5 million United States dollars within a period of two years from the date of first investment expenditure, if the Minister is satisfied that the investment is capable of generating net economic benefits to Kenya, shall be set off for the purposes of collection against the tax charged on the income of the person who incurred the investment expenditure:

Provided that -

(i) the set-off of import duty shall only be made against income tax paid on the income generated by the person who incurred the investment expenditure arising from the investment only; and

(ii) the capital goods are used wholly and exclusively in the production of the taxable income; and

(iii) the private investment is a project other than an official aid funded project or a project funded directly or indirectly by the Government; and

(iv) the import duty to be set-off does not form part of the cost of the capital goods for the purposes of wear and tear deductions;

(v) the amount of import duty to be set off shall not be treated as a withholding, advance or instalment tax or as a prepayment of that person's final tax liability;

(vi) the amount of the import duty to be set off shall be applied to reduce the person's final tax liability before taking into account any withholding, instalment or advance tax already paid in respect of that year of income;

(vii) any excess of the import duty to be set off shall be applied to reduce the person's final tax liability before taking into account any withholding, instalment or advance tax already paid in respect of that year of income;

(viii) the import duty to be set off shall not be refundable.

(2) The cost of a project under subsection (1) shall include all expenditure on -

(a) capital assets (excluding land) that fall under Part I of the Second Schedule; and

(b) capital goods (excluding passenger cars) qualifying for wear and tear deductions under Part II of the Second Schedule.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the expression "official aid funded project" has the meaning assigned to it in section 2 of the Customs and Excise Act.

Amendments to
Cap. 491.

96. The Central Bank of Kenya Act is amended -

(a) by repealing section 34 and inserting the following new section -

Banker to institutions. 34.(1) The Bank shall open accounts for and accept deposits from, collect monetary claims for and on account of institutions and generally act as banker to institutions.

(2) The Bank may provide any additional services or facilities it considers desirable including facilities for clearing financial instruments to institutions operating in Kenya.

(3) For the purposes of this section "institution" includes:

- (a) a specified bank;
- (b) a specified financial institution;
- (c) any other person or body of persons which the Minister on the recommendation of the Bank may by notice in the Gazette prescribe.

(b) by repealing section 38 and inserting the following new section -

Reserve requirement. 38.(1) The Bank may from time to time require institutions to maintain minimum cash balances on deposit with the Bank as reserves against their deposit and other liabilities.

(2) The Bank may specify ratios for different types of liabilities and may further specify the method of computing the amount of the total liabilities of an institution but the ratios specified shall be the same for all institutions:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent the Bank from allowing an institution or group of institutions upon which the provisions of subsection (1) are applied for the first time, a period within which to comply with the cash reserve ratio requirements as may be prescribed by the Bank.

(3) Any specification of, or increase in the minimum reserve requirements under subsection (1) or subsection (2) shall take effect only after the expiration of thirty days' notice to the institution of the Bank's intention to take action.

(4) The Bank may impose on any institution which fails to maintain the sufficient minimum cash balances required under this section, a penalty interest charge not exceeding one percent per day on the amount of the deficiency for each day during which the deficiency continues.

(5) The Bank may, if in its opinion circumstances of an unusual nature render it desirable to do so, pay interest at such rates and subject to such qualifications as it may determine on minimum cash balances deposited with the Bank under this section.

(6) For the purposes of this section, "institution" includes -

(a) a bank licensed under the Banking Act;

Cap. 488. (b) a financial institution licensed under the Banking Act;

(c) any other person or body of persons which the Minister, on the recommendation of the Bank may by notice in the Gazette prescribe.
